YOUR LAST LESSON

We are sorry—very sorry. But this is the last Lesson you will receive until your account is brought up-to-date. We do not believe these Lessons will be of any benefit to you so long as you do not meet your obligations to us. The Laws of God are based upon absolutely honest principles, and one must treat his fellow man as he himself would like to be treated. So until your account is brought up-to-date, this is the last Lesson you will receive. What a pity. With the Power of God being revealed to you through these Lessons. If your payment is already in the mail, discard this notice. You may reinstate your account at any time, and your Lessons will be continued.
