

DELINQUENT

Your account is delinquent. You don't want that—do you? It is probably due to an oversight on your part, and this notice will undoubtedly be all that is necessary. When an account becomes delinquent, it works a hardship on Dr. Robinson and on the whole Movement, and I don't believe you want to do that. To keep your Lessons coming to you without interruption, your monthly payments must be received when due. Thank you for your co-operation.
