HOW FOOLISH

Far away, far beyond the ken of human minds, up yonder in the heavens, lie the countless galaxies of stars and planets. Each move, continually moves in its orbit, and never does one go astray. Round and round they go. Hundreds of thousands of light years away. And a "light year" is the distance travelled by light, speeding towards us at the rate of 186,000 miles a second. When that light, travelling at that speed has been on its way for about a million years, you have a faint understanding of the magnitude of this great universe, created by an Infinite Living Spirit which is God.

You cannot imagine such distances. Your little mind is not so constituted that it can understand such marvellous lengths and distances as these. And yet, there they are. Placed there millions and billions of ages ago, and there they will be, billions and billions of ages from now. And the Great Creator put them there. And the same Great Creative Spirit of God keeps them there. This is the Power it is we are teaching to you. We try to show to you some of the magnificence of the Realm of the Great Spirit--God. And truly marvellous is that Realm of God. And truly marvellous is the God-Law. Yet it is available every moment of the day or night, for you. It can bring to you, everything you can possibly need for your complete happiness, joy, peace, and material and spiritual abundance.

Such a Power as this MUST be able to do these things. If it could form and sustain such an elaborate galaxy of stars and planets up yonder in the heavens, and keep them there, do you not think such a Power must be abundantly able to take care of your little life? It is--abundantly able to do that.

And yet, there are those who tell us they represent God, who would have us believe that 2000 years ago, the Great Spirit of God came to this earth in the form of a virgin-born piece of human flesh, by way of a mortal woman. In other words, they would have us believe that Deity, the Great Deity, the Great Divinity which is God, was cooped up in a foetus in the matrix of a womb of a married woman. And what sort of blasphemy is that anyway? Yet they tell us that, and in the same breath they tell us that if we do not subscribe to the doctrines and theologies they teach, we shall all be eternally doomed and damned. What an insane philosophy that is. Who, in his reasoning thinking mind can believe it? Yes, I said who CAN believe it? Certainly not you. Or I. For as we look at yon glorious planetary system in space, we refuse to dishonor God by even thinking such asinine, false, pagan doctrines as these.

These self-appointed "agents of God" would have us believe that this Great Creative Spirit of God made a mistake when he created you and I. They tell us that after God had created man, He discovered that He had not made him perfect. God saw, we are told, that man was desperately wicked. Yet he had just come fresh from the hand of God. He had not even asked God to make him. So the mistake was all on God's side. Then, we are told, this Great Spirit, this One above all others who could, and did, and does keep yon heavenly bodies revolving in their tracks, made a wholesale drowning. He caused a great flood to come on the earth, and then, after drowning all but one man and his family, He caused the waters to subside, and He started creation all over again.

But God didn't seem to make a better job the second time than He did the first time. For the first thing the "only man found righteous in the sight of the Lord" did, was to get drunk and sleep with his daughters. Incest we call that nowadays. Yet these present-day religionists would have us believe that. They would go further than that and tell us that if we do NOT believe that, we shall be eternally damned, unless of course we allow their organization to give us "absolution" or "salvation" through some dogma they teach.

They tell us that this second attempt on the part of God to re-make man, ended in far greater disaster than did the first attempt. For even now, as I write this, these organizations tell us that "unless we believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, or in the Roman Catholic church, we shall all be damned". And they expect us to believe that sort of thing. They tell us that 2000 years ago--only 2000 years ago mind you, God's son Jesus Christ was crucified on a cross to save mankind from the sin which he was born with when God, probably against man's will, and without taking man into the consideration at all, created man a lost soul. For that is what they tell us man is today.

They say that the name of this Great Spirit, God, who came to earth and was crucified, was Jesus Christ. They tell us that those of us who do not believe that story, are eternally lost. What they neglect to tell us is that far beyond 2000 years back, religious tradition records more than a score of "crucified gods" all of whom came down to the earth to do the same identical thing they tell us Jesus Christ came to do. They conveniently forget that, yet the record is clear. It is plain. Any large public library will provide the proof of this statement. Now what has been the result of such a teaching? It will be well to remember here that 2000 years isn't a drop in the bucket compared to the 800,000 "light years" which have elapsed since the same God we are here talking about placed our stars in the heavens. Yet 2000 years ago, in an attempt to redeem man, God's own creation, He came down to earth in the form of a man, born of a virgin, only to be rejected by the whole human race, which still is on its way to hell, according to those organizations which so dishonor God, themselves, and us, by expecting us to believe such utter nonsense as that is. Sometimes I wonder if all they are interested in is not in building up their own organizations, at the expense of the general public, and on the credulity of the general public. Yes I do--I still wonder about that. For if anyone attempts to show the world the utter fallacy of such man-made theories of God, a great howl usually goes up, and the cry is raised--"crucify him!--crucify him!--deport him--deport him" etc.

Now we know nothing of the human race back of a few thousand or a few tens of thousands of years. Certainly we know nothing of it one "light year" away. So shall we look at this world about 2000 years after God was supposed to have come down from "heaven" to save His own creation from hell-fire, damnation, or sin. If any of these things exist, by the way, God must have created them or been responsible for their creation. For there was a time when man did not exist on this earth. And certainly God made the first man. So then logic insures that if man, the creature of God is imperfect, God must have made him imperfect. However, these religious (?) organizations tell us that 2000 years ago, God felt sorry for mankind, the same mankind He had created, so he "opened up a way of escape from the terrible doom which must fall on all regardless". Now, after two thousand years of that teaching, and after 2000 years of operation of the organization which tells us, absolutely without authority that it represents God, shall we see whether or not either God or His organization--"the church, both Catholic or Protestant" has succeeded in proving to mankind that it really does represent God. My own personal opinion here is that both churches are human, man-made organizations, neither of which knows anything about God. They know a lot about an old pagan superstition concerning some "crucified god" or other, but I do not believe either one of them knows anything about the Great Creative Spirit of God, which Spirit, millions of ages ago, flung into far-away space, planets, stars, satellites by the hundreds of millions. They know nothing about THAT God certainly.

How foolish then it is to attempt to "save" either this world or this race by such a philosophy as that. And the great wonder to me is how any thinking man or woman can believe it. They really do not believe it, but these church organizations have so instilled "fear" into them, that, following in the footsteps of their forefathers, they have been afraid to disbelieve the story. Thank God--yes thank God one million times, the absolute untruth and fallacy of such stories as these is finally being brought to this earth by the "PSYCHIANA" Movement. Through it, the REAL TRUTHS of the Spirit which is God are being given to the millions, and the millions are absorbing them very greedily. This day had to come. Ignorance and religious superstition could not reign and rule in human minds and hearts forever. And in the evolution of time and in the evolution of man, his Spiritual vision has been awakened, and God--the Great God is at last being made known to humanity. I thank the Living Spirit of God that He chose me for this work. Its hard, dont think it isnt, BUT victory is just around the corner. Men and women have at last become awakened to the REAL truths of God, and these old church superstitions are fast going by the board. Its time they did. Much consternation is being caused amongst "the faithful" of course, but it is God's inevitable plan that life, and growth, and religious knowledge must be an evolutionary process. And it is in the course of this evolution that these old paga-originated superstitions have to go.

For after 2000 years of the preaching of them, look at the world today. Hellish bombing-planes. Ghastly submarines. Horrible flame-throwers. Human lives sent to the bottom of the ocean without regard. Human beings blown to hell or wherever it is they go by the tens of thousands. Hate, war-madness, peril, atheism, poverty, illness disease, and, worst of all, LACK OF FAITH IN GOD. And these conditions exist even now, as I write this, right here on this earth. And they exists in spite of the fact that there are millions belonging to these church organizations, all of which claim that if we will believe what each or any one of them ask us to believe, we shall be "saved from the wrath to come" What a shame that such a theology as that ever got off to any sort of a start at all. But its ultimate defeat has been assured by its own inability to rprove that which it preaches. For people today are no longer interested in "simply believing" what any church organization tells them to believe about God being crucified for the sins of the world. They each tell a different story anyway, and they each condemn the other as not being of God.

However, these organizations cannot be saved in their present form. And while some of them are rapidly discarding the foolish and untrue religious superstitions of Deity, there still are those who, if they were to discard them, they would have to dissolve their entire organizations. And I might add that it would be a good thing for the rest of the world if they were dissolved, because, when the false religion goes out of the window, men and women will automatically see the TRUE religion. They will see it because there will be no mystery to it. They will see it because it will appeal to their reason and common sense. The only reson these old church organizations can hold the people at all, is because of fear and superstition. They will not allow them to think for themselves. They must stand in awe and fear of a priest, who, in the first place, and all through his life, defies and nullifies the most fundamental Law of God, which Law is that we "multiply, be fruitful, and replenish the earth with our own kind". In no one way can life be transmitted. Yet "priests of the holy church" are forbidden to be married. A nonsensical, pagan thing if ever there was one.

Now let it be distinctly understood please that in making the truths of God known to the world, IT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FOR ME TO WRITE AS PLAINLY AS I DO. ALL SUCH WRITING IS DONE IN A SPIRIT ON INFINITE LOVE FOR THESE GOOD PEOPLE. I do not relish putting my head in a noose. Nor do I like to call attention to the fatlacies these organizations are attempting to foist on the people as being "truths of God". But, beloved, IF SOME NEW PICTURE OF GOD IS NOT BROUGHT TO THIS WORLD PRETTY SOON, CIVILIZATION AS WE KNOW IT WILL PERISH. The Roman Catholic church is being literally driven out of country after country, and it is making now one of the most intsnse propaganda drives on America it has ever made. This is the only country left which will give it full and free room to propagate its doctrines. Fortunately, this blessed United States gives me the same right. And just as long as our Government Officials are convinced that I am honestly trying to do something for God, the United States, and humanity, they will leave me alone. I give this Government, the best Government in the world, credit for being that fair and square. I do not like the way the Catholic church or any other church is allowed privileges which business organizations are not allowed. I believe any church should be made to PROVE THE TRUTH OF ITS PHILOSOPHY BEFORE IT IS GIVEN ANY PRIVILEGES WHATSOEVER.

But, in the wisdom and good ness of a Great God, and because I know how to use the Power of the Spirit of God, I shall be ever protected in these United States, regardless of what I write. I depend upon my Government for that protection, and it will be freely given. When I first started this Movement, letters of complaint went into the Post Office by the thousands. And the only basis for these complaints was not legitimate. I did not believe in the crucifixion of the Great Deity, and therefore I must be denied the use of the U.S. Mails. It is a credit to the justice and the Americanism of the American Post Office officials that while attempts have been made to find something out of the way with this Movement, none has ever been found, and I HAVE NEVER BEEN INTERFERED WITH BY ANY POST OFFICE OFFICIAL. I take off my hats to them, and I thank them. I shall never write anything I do not have a Constitutional right to write. I shall never do anything which is against any law. But, in unmasking falsehood and error, which falsehood and error is masquerading under the cloak of God, I must, and shall speak very $$$$$$ plainly.

My heart is burdened for God and human souls. I see a great organization like the Roman Catholic church, bringing to men and women doctrines and teachings which are false to the core, and which can very easily be proven to be false to the core. Have I not the right then to tell my fellow-Americans the truth about God? Of course I have, and of course I shall. And I shall continue to tell the world these truths until the last jot and tittle of paganism, as personified by those who teach a "crucified god" is forever banished from the face of the earth. That day will come. I may not see it. But I have already sown the seeds which will bring in an abundant harvest for God and the world.

To you all I say this, and I know you will follow me carefully, for I know you are as anxious to find the Great Spirit of Eternal Power as I am to have you. Every morning, noon, and night, make a few moments time and be in absolute quietness. Relax. Forget the things of this world, and then, when in a receptive mood, repeat my old favorite affirmation--"I BELIEVE IN THE POWER OF THE LIVING GOD". Do this until you KNOW the Power of the Spirit of God is making itself felt in your life. For we are not dealing with a God who lives "beyond the tomb", we are here dealing with the most dynamic and potent spiritual Power this world has ever known. God. And the Power of God is available to you every moment. Once known, recognized, and used, this old earth can very soon be made a paradise. Men and nations can live in peace the one with the other. God, through you, can do that. God, through you, wants to do that. So forget all fears and all pagan superstitions about God, and, throwing fear to the winds, SHOW GOD THAT YOU HAVE ENOUGH CONFIDENCE IN HIS EXISTENCE TO BELIEVE THAT HE LIVES, AND THAT HE CAN MANIFEST HIS POWER IN YOUR LIFE TO THE BENEFIT AND FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE WHOLE HUMAN RACE.
