

THE WORLD CHAOS

Lead Oct 12th

The chaos in the world today is slowly and steadily growing worse. Nor is there any ray of hope which we can see for an early settlement of this desperate situation, which is far more desperate than most of us living here in beautiful America realize. This war is on in earnest. It is a deadly thing. Ere long, it is going to break out on a colossal scale. Bloodshed and horror hitherto unknown are on the way. Hitler hasn't even started to use the troops and the airplanes he has. Neither has Red Russia, and that country is "red" in more ways than one. At the present moment its hands are "red" with the blood of innocent Finns. That blood will take a long time to wash off.

Your leader is not a calamity howler. But he does and can look facts in the face. He will ~~vene~~ disguise those facts no matter how horrible a picture they may make. Before you read this, I expect Italy will be fighting on the side of the British and French, and that will throw the rest of them in. Do not think that this war is over. Do not think that it will be over in a few months. For a time of international horror such as history has never before reported is on the way. This is the end of the type of international "civilization" this world has enjoyed.

As a matter of fact, this world never has known true civilization. For there is not true civilization outside of the Realm of the Spirit of God, and the world certainly knows nothing about that Great Spirit, does it, think you? For man has been separated from God. And until man is re-united to God, wars will exist, and all the horrors those wars bring with them.

The summum bonum of the scheme of creation is that God and man should live together in perfect harmony. That means only one thing. It means that man shall recognize to the very full, what the Spirit of God is, what It exists for, and, "where" the Spirit of God makes Its abiding place. This information, while always available, has not yet been given to humanity. And the result of this is seen in world conditions today. Horrible conditions they are, but not one fiftieth as horrible as they will be one year from today. For "hell" will be turned loose, and I don't mean "maybe". For this is the last stand a civilization without God will make.

It has gone as far as it can go. It can go no further. It has reached the end of the ungodly trail. It has butchered--it has murdered---it has stolen that which it was not entitled to have--it has ridiculed God---it will pay the bill. And the price will be awful. It is awful now. And, until the "Psychiana" Movement came into being, there was not one organization on the face of the earth which knew what the trouble was, or could diagnose the trouble. Therefore, outside of "Psychiana", there does not exist on the face of this earth today, any organization operating under the name of God, which is even faintly qualified to step into this ghastly world picture, and lead civilization out of the morass it is in today.

Every right-thinking man and woman will recognize the fact that no human power, no human dictator, no human being of any sort, and no combination of human beings can bring peace to this world at this stage of the game. Humanity has gone mad. Mankind is insane. The powers and forces of everything wrong are on the march, and it will take the forces and powers of the Right to stop that march. And the end of the march is not yet.

Pertinent then, is the question which is eating at the very vitals of our hope---what is the cause of these conditions and what is the remedy. Let me say here that the remedy lies in the Realm of the Spirit of God. It is foolish to think that the Pope or any other man alive today can supply the answer. The answer lies in man's recognition of God. Then, I hear one say,--"what is the matter with the picture of God as given to us today by the churches?". And my answer is--"EVERYTHING".

For the true picture of God has never yet been brought to the world by any religion on the face of the earth. And, if I know how to reason, that leaves this world---GODLESS. It is Godless. And everybody with one iota of brains knows that it is. And every man and woman capable of independent thinking at all, knows also that nothing offered to the world today in the name of God can do one single little thing towards revealing God to man. They can prate about Jesus. They can preach about Paul---but neither Jesus nor Paul, nor any other of the world's many ##### "crucified gods" have ever been able to reveal God to men. And the Christ of the Christian church cannot do that either.

If the world were not facing the horrible calamity it is facing, and if I did not know what is coming, I might not make the above statement. But, knowing these things, and having been granted a vision from God, I am making that statement and I am making it with all the tenseness of which I am capable. You can preach Jesus Christ and Him crucified till the crack of doom, if you want to (and many do) and when doom cracks, this world will still know nothing about God--the Infinite Spirit which is God. For the story of these crucified "gods" is only theology. And theology is TAUGHT by every religious organization in existence.

But the Spirit of God comes within the Realm of True Religion. And true religion is not theology. True religion is the consciousness of the Spirit of God in a human life. That is something which cannot be taught. It must be experienced. Religion, therefore, is unknown on the earth today. Theology is everywhere, and this ghastly Armageddon exists and laughs in the face of everything theology has ever taught. IT PROVES THEOLOGY FALSE. IT PROVES THEOLOGY AND RELIGION TWO DIFFERENT THINGS.

Then, if this is so, it means that true religion must replace theology. It's too bad that the world did not awaken to the fact a long time ago. It's too bad that theology and the theological institutions, meaning the churches, did not awaken to the fact long ago, that while they had a lot of theology, they had no religion. For what religious organization is there on the face of the earth today which can reveal the Spirit of God to a man? Where is there, outside of "Psychiana" such an organization? They do not exist.

All churches have their "evangelists". They all hold "revivals" meetings. But where is the organization which can reveal the Spirit of God to this earth? Where, I repeat, is it? It does not exist. Yet theology exists. The Roman Catholic church is the greatest theological institution in the world, yet it knows absolutely nothing about God. It knows a whole lot about theology. It knows much about itself as an organization. It makes this claim and it makes that claim. It keeps millions under its domination through fear and through fear alone. BUT WHAT DOES IT KNOW ABOUT THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD? It knows absolutely nothing. And neither does any other theological institution on the face of the earth today.

So I would recommend that the earth get rid of theology. In its place, let's get true religion. And what is true religion? Just one thing. MAN'S RECOGNITION OF THE FACT THAT THE INVISIBLE SPIRIT OF GOD LIVES IN HIM, WITH ALL ITS POWER. That's religion. That's the religion of God. That's the religion this world is dying for. In the absence of that religion, this world has gone mad. It is still mad, and no theology extant can save it. For--as I have pointed out--NO THEOLOGY KNOWS GOD. All present day theologies are man-made, therefore cannot be of God. And nothing ever offered the world by theology has ~~ever~~ revealed God to the world.

This means then, that the whole church structure of today is theological and not religious. That is exactly my claim. I defy successful contradiction. One look at the world around us proves my statement. Therefore, the new conception of God which will come to the world, and the new civilization which will follow Armageddon, CANNOT COME THROUGH THE CHURCH OR THROUGH ANYTHING THE CHURCH TEACHES. You see that, I am sure. God cannot reveal Himself through h theology. GOD WILL REVEAL HIMSELF TO THIS WORLD THROUGH RELIGION, and of that, we have none.

Many have questioned my statements that the church is theological and not religious. But in the light of the above facts, is it any wonder that the last great outpouring of the Spirit of God on the earth should come through "Psychiana" which denies practically everything the church teaches? Of course not. God has given these theological church institutions many thousands of years in which to teach true religion. But they have not done so. Instead, they have attempted to feed the world--theology. And the world has vomited it up. It doesn't want it. This world wants God. And present day theology does not know God. That's the answer.

Let none make the mistake of thinking that the "Psychiana" Movement is only a flash in the pan. Let none think that we are opposed to religion. This is the most dynamic Spiritual Movement this world has ever known. It is the Movement through which GOD IS BEING REVEALED TO MANKIND FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND. Theology, in its varied forms, has honestly tried to reveal God to the world---BUT IT HAS EITHER MANUFACTURED ITS GOD OR STOLEN IT FROM ANOTHER AND OLDER ##### SYSTEM OF THEOLOGY, EXACTLY AS THE CHRISTIAN ##### SYSTEM OF THEOLOGY HAS DONE.

And how are you going to save the world that way? How can you reveal the Spirit of God to the world if you don't know what the Spirit of God is? How can you expect to bring a lasting peace to this earth if you tell mankind that God was killed on a cross 2000 years ago by a handful of Roman soldiers? You cannot foist that insane theory off on the people as being of the Spirit of God and therefore of the realm of true religion, can you? 5c

I'm trying to help the priests and the preachers out of their theology---INTO GOD. Will they let me? They'll have to. For the Spirit of God has laid its hand on me and on this whole Movement, and therefore, these theological organizations will either come to God, or they will go down to complete annihilation in the mad vortex of world-horror we are about to witness. No system of theology, regardless of how big it may be numerically, can STAND IN THIS HOUR OF TRIAL.

For 'twill take more than the "blood of Jesus", more than the "Virgin Mary" more than the "resurrection" and more than everything present day theology has to stand alone in these coming days. I know whereof I speak. Only the Spirit of God can vanquish the spirit of evil. And no theology extant knows the slightest bit of truth about the existing Power of the Spirit of God. Therefore, great is the significance of this Movement. Honored are you indeed by being a Member of it. It is your duty, your solemn duty to bind yourself to God through what is sent to you both in our Lessons and through the pages of this Weekly. For through it--I speak to you as # the mouthpiece of God.

The Pope says he is the mouthpiece of God on the earth, but that's only his theological hallucination. He has no credentials. He cannot prove that. Fortunately, we of "Psychiana" can abundantly prove the Power behind this Movement, if it ever needed any proof.

I am asking every Student to stay close to the Spirit of God in these last, and fast waning days of a God-less civilization. Hold close to us. Keep steadfast in the Power of the Spirit of God, for before many more months have passed away, you will know what I am talking about. I am relying on you to stand behind me. I am only one man, and even though the Spirit of God has placed its hand on me and given to me the task of revealing the True God to the earth in these last days, still, I need your help. I need you all. Remember us here. ~~Just two men.~~ Bringing God to humanity. Standing all alone. Criticized, blasphemed, jeered at. But the Spirit of God in ~~is~~ shall conquer, and, through the "Psychiana" Movement, God will soon draw to Himself, all nations and all peoples, and the glory of the Power of the Spirit of God shall cover the earth, as the waters cover the sea.
