

THE WANDERER

A FLASHINGLY BRILLIANT SEMI-FICTIONAL NOVEL WHICH MAY MAKE YOU WONDER AT THE STARTLING POSSIBILITIES IT CONTAINS

Dr. Frank B. Robinson is fast being recognized as one of the world's most profound religious thinkers and leaders. This novel is semi-fiction and semi-true, but the reader is left to determine for himself what is fiction and what is truth in this book. Only a true mystic could have written this manuscript. Only those who are interested in true spiritual possibilities should read it.

Real names and places are used in "THE WANDERER." Dr. Robinson has drawn perhaps the most fantastic picture of our possibilities of eternal life ever drawn by any writer. Yet underneath all of the fiction lies the possibility that the book may be true. If it is ...?

IN THIS BOOK DR. ROBINSON MEETS A CHARACTER ON A TRAIN WHO FASCINATES HIM. AS THEY PART, DR. ROBINSON NOTICES SCARS IN THE PALMS OF HIS HANDS . . . AND LATER . . . HE SEES SCARS ON THE BROW OF HIS CHANCE TRAIN ACQUAINTANCE.

This novel is based upon the possibility that Jesus Christ never died, but has been on this earth, alive, for over two thousand years. For sheer beauty of dramatization, ease and simplicity of writing, and throbbing with his now well-known spirituality, Dr. Robinson will enthrall you as he unfolds these pages to you. This book will sell very rapidly. It will be off the press, first edition, in March, 1947. SO, IN ORDER TO BE AMONG THE FIRST TO RECEIVE THIS AMAZING NOVEL, SEND YOUR ORDER IN NOW.
