The universe in which we live is cruel

The forces of nature, or "ACTS OF GOD" as they are sometimes called by poor, misguided souls, strike without consideration of what will happen to whom. When rivers overflow their banks, sweeping away human lives and property as we have recently witnessed—when tornadoes, storms and earthquakes wreak their havoc, or when volcanoes throw forth their fire and molten metal burying whole cities, THEY ASK NO ONE'S PERMISSION.

They don't differentiate between the "godly" and the "ungodly," the "good" or the "bad," the "just" or the "unjust," the rich or the poor, the saint or the bum. THESE FORCES ARE CRUEL, AND, INCIDENTALLY, WHOLLY OUT OF STEP WITH THE ECCLESIASTICAL PORTRAYAL OF A "LOVING FATHER" WHO CARES AND PROTECTS.

SO LET'S FACE THE FACTS

We believe there has always existed a Spiritual God-Law which is abundantly able to bring to you whatever things you need— here and now. It can solve your every problem if you will let it. We believe this invisible dynamic Law to have ever existed. We believe it is God. ~~myth and superstition.~~ And we think we can prove this. At any rate, we would welcome the chance to prove it. And there's nothing strange about that. We are creatures of evolution. We like to look to the past for our inspiration, instead of looking to the future for it. If God exists at all, or if the God-Law exists, it exists here and now, for all alike, and for the purpose of bringing to each and every one of us, an abundance of material, as well as spiritual supply.
