I, NO. 12

MOSCOW, IDAHO, SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1940.

10 CENTS A COPY.

A great emancipation of the human race started. The start quiet yet powerful. First, men and women saw a strange advertisement which began to appear in magazines and newspapers throughout the land. The advertisement stated "Man can now talk with God." Then over many radio stations went forth the same message—"Man can now talk with God." The results of this strange announcement were varied and many. People shook their heads. "Just another religious racket"—said some. Others, seeing the announcement, and more from curiosity than anything else, replied to the advertisements both over the radio and in the daily newspapers and magazines.

The insertion of that piece of copy marked the beginning of a new day in the realm religious. It brought in a day which will never end until the whole human race has been emancipated from its ills, its wars, its crimes, its injustices, its sorrows. For, strange as it may seem, that simple announcement in the advertisements, made advertisement history. Those who listened to the ad, and who have been millions of people who did, found that instead of the "Psychiana" Movement being "just another religious racket," it was definitely a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth. The message brought sank deep into the hearts and minds of the millions of people, and for the first time in their lives, they began to discover who and what really is. And where it is.

The Great Emancipation ~

A strange Spiritual Power came to them. Whereas before they had been defeated at every turn of the road, they found failure turning into success. Miracles of healing followed this strange new Teaching. Those who for a lifetime had sought God "at the foot of the cross" found God in an entirely different place. Broken hearts were mended. Sorrow was replaced by an infinite joy. Despair was replaced with an abundant hope, and "faith" that some day, in some mysterious manner, the soul might perchance find God, was replaced by a knowledge of the Spirit of God at work, in the most unlikely of all places—human lives here and now. Yes—history was made by the insertion of that dynamic piece of copy.

Inside of one year, 67 different countries had replied to the advertisement. The mailing staff had to be doubled and then trebled. The "orthodox" paid no attention to this new Teaching of God—that is—not for a while. But soon they, too, began to prick up their ears as the results being obtained through this new conception of God began to become known. They could not do otherwise. Then the church papers and magazines began to deride, berate, malign, and scoff at what some of them called a "drugstore" religion. But the "drugstore" religion never ceased to grow. It never failed to reveal the Spirit of God to whomever cared to find that Spirit. The ads continued to

Dr. Robinson Donating Deed.

This is a picture of Dr. Robinson donating to the Latah County Commissioners, the deed to Robinson Park. Dr. Robinson purchased the land and deeded it to the public of Latah County for an amusement park. The Soil Conservation Service built a dam, which in turn made a lake of about 20 acres. The American Legion sponsored the naming of it, "ROBINSON PARK." Thousands every summer and winter enjoy this beautiful recreation spot. Commissioners Blaine, Driscoll, and Nordby are shown receiving the deed. (Dr. Robinson is standing.)

With Our... Students

For the next letter we go to Chicago. I was there just a few weeks ago. By the way, the Chicago Daily News released a "Pegler" article headed something like this: "Pegler Discovers a Bum in Idaho Muscling in on 'Great I Am' Racket." Too bad Col. Knox is not fully informed. I wrote him a letter asking for an appointment. The letter was not even answered, which did not upset me at all. Nor does it upset me to be called a "racketeer." It will upset considerably those who called me this when this Movement comes into its own. But here's the Chicago letter:

Mrs. C. L. Post, Chicago, Illinois:

"I must tell you of a wonderful demonstration I had. It was very necessary that my husband should be at a New York Exposition, but because of his health we could not arrange for space until the week before opening. When space was allotted him, it was most undesirable, so he gave up the idea of going. That night I had my talk with God, and next morning a lengthy telegram came describing a wonderful booth, and in two hours, all was arranged to go. Paying rent for same, traveling expenses, etc., left me with very little in the bank. I gave no thought to that until my folks were on their way to the exposition. Again that night as I retired I talked with God, and the next morning's mail brought a check which was not due for ten days, and enough to carry on the business until the folks would be back. I just thought this might help some others with similar difficulties. It was not a small matter, as it meant the pay day of seven people each week. I only wish I had the time and could write many of my experiences, just to help others. No one can tell me Doctor Robinson is a fake. I have learned how to get help through his wonderful Teaching in any of my problems. My prayer is God bless and prosper Dr. Frank B. Robinson."

Thank you Mrs. Post. You had a wonderful experience with the Guiding Power of God. Recognize the Spirit of God IN YOU, and you will never lack anything. As far as my being a "fake" goes—well—maybe I am—but if I am then may God send ten thousand more "fakers" like me to this earth. It needs them.

Now we go to Minnesota, and there we speak with Mrs. Arnold. God brought to her, peace, joy, and uplifting assurance. Could anyone ask more of God than that? Mrs. Arnold, as you progress, you will find your cup running over with all three of these blessings. Happy indeed are you I assure you. Here is Mrs. Arnold's letter:

Mrs. L. M. Arnold, Erskine, Minnesota:
"I have studied your Lessons over and over again, until I was sure I caught the deepest meaning of the inspired thought passing from your brain power to mine, through the medium of ink and paper. Never before in all my long life have I felt such thrills of peace, joy, and uplifting assurance. Thanks a million, Dr. Robinson."

What you really are depends upon how much religion you have. If you have much, the world will hear from you. If you have none, no one will remember you after you have gone.

"Gleams"

It is urgently requested that every Student who has not done so secure a copy of "Gleams Over the Horizon" from our book dept. This book is probably the most plain-speaking book on religions this world has ever known. It is not possible to answer successfully the arguments advanced in that book, coupled with the facts it gives. These "crucified gods" either existed or they did not exist. They each and every one considered their "crucified god" the "only true god" the world had ever known. The Christian holds the same theory. And yet, a score of other "crucified gods" have flashed across the horizon, and the principles of Christianity and every fundamental teaching of Christianity were known to the "heathen" thousands of years before Christ was ever heard of. If then, the "god" of the Christian is but one more in the long procession of "crucified gods," the truths of God have not yet been brought to this earth. This was a fact until God saw fit to bring these truths through "Psychiana." So if you do not have this book "Gleams" may we suggest that you send for it at once. The price is $3.00.

Questions and Answers

Ques: If the Catholic church was the first and original church, what can be gained by the other churches continuing to exist—why not them all come back to the true church?

Ans: I suspect that you are a Catholic. No theological arguments in this department please. You go where you want to and let others do the same thing.

Ques: I am in the last stages of T. B. and I believe that God can heal me. Will you do what you can?

Ans: I won't do what I can, but I will do what God CAN, and that's a whole lot different, isn't it? Do you see what I mean? Perhaps what I have just said will give you the secret of your complete recovery. If it does not, write in direct please to Dr. Tenney.

Ques: How can I be sure that God is in me and that I can draw upon the God-Law for what I need?

Ans: Better study your Lessons all over. If you are NOT sure of the Spirit of God in you, you will get just exactly nowhere. This is a Mover of men and women who KNOW existence of the Spirit of God them. This is the first thing for to grasp. Don't try to advance in spiritual realm until your mind is satisfied on the existence of God you.

Ques: I am a colored lady Student haven't much education, but I want to do something to help you. These wonderful truths to the world. I'm sorry I am colored. What can I do?

Ans: What reason have you to be so that you are colored? Shame on. Do you know that Jesus Christ He ever lived, was closer to be colored than He was white? I out the countenance of a Syrian. The very sweetest lady I ever knew. Mrs. Amanda Smith, was a colored lady. If I ever get as close to her as she was, I shall be happy. I astounded to hear you make such statement. I have literally tens of thousands of colored Students, the best white Student I have does look a bit bigger to me than you. It's not the color of your skin counts, sister, it's the color of your heart that beats under the skin. Our National Convention in Portland, Oregon, last year, a colored lady came all the way from Tennessee to attend that Convention. The morning I spotted her in the audience, I called her up to the platform and had her sing. She was the life of the Convention. The funniest part of the whole thing was that the song she sang was—"There is a fountain flowing with blood." And when I let her sing be sung in a "Psychiana" Convention, that IS going some. No mind your color, lady, there is big work for you among our colored Students. You will never find a white "Psychiana" Member who will look down on you because of your color, I promise you that.

Ques: My husband says he will not allow me to study your Lessons and will not give me the money which to pay for them. What shall I do?

Ans: I'll send them complimentary. You are over 21 and your husband has no authority over what you study in the religious realm. I suspect you know his religion. I have run this before, and usually the wife has her foot down and old man husband knuckles down and plays the game for a change.

If anyone thinks that religion "save the soul," that one will not lose everything in life worth while but he is very apt to lose that which he seeks to save. God save us from a system of theology which is only interested in "saving the soul." The soul is God, and God needs no church organization to save Him. All that needs is for men and women to recognize His presence in them. This done away with the need for churches which specialize in "saving souls" does it not?

Abundant Life" Not In Church

SUMMARIZING a three-year survey of 333 American cities, Dr. Ward Thorndyke, noted Columbia University psychiatrist, today rated godliness as being far from civicness. Dr. Thorndyke said that in where the general goodness of or good people is highest, there many artists, engineers, musicians, teachers—but relatively few ymen.

is a pity. It's a crying shame. For they could be such a powerful organization in bringing the truths of the Spirit of God to humanity if they knew these truths. But they do not know them.

You will see how the "Psychiana" Movement is so stupendous. Here we have religious organizations with millions of followers, teaching in the name of God an old religious myth and tradition which was known to millions of people long, long before the time of their "crucified god." And then, the time being ripe, the Spirit of God reveals to the Founder of "Psychiana" what the truths of God really are, and gives to him the responsibility of presenting these truths of God to the world. Naturally, there is consternation in the camp religious. For these organizations know as well as we know that the Power of the Spirit of God, which Power is behind our entire Movement, cannot be even hindered, let alone stopped. They know, as we know, that anything the Spirit of God is behind can never fail. And before too long, this world will turn its eyes to Moscow, Idaho, there to find the Movement which God has chosen to bring His truths to the world, replacing the old religious myths and traditions which have for so long passed themselves off as being of God.

You will understand now why the amazing things which follow this Teaching, happen. And we trust that every Member of this Movement realizes to the very full, what the indwelling of the Spirit of God means, first to him or herself, and then to the world. For now that the actual truths of God have been brought to the earth, it is but a case of time until the whole world receives them. Then, the church, which Dr. Thorndyke rightly calls a "club" will either have to accept the true picture of God, partaking of the Power of the Spirit of God, or it will seal its own doom by not doing so. Let us all hope the church finally decides to teach and preach the Living Spirit of God, forgetting for all time, these old pagan traditions which so many different systems of religion have also preached.

If we could remove all the "faith" from religion, and replace it with knowledge, my—what a world this would be. If "faith" were even replaced by charity, it would be just as good a world. Let's try it—shall we?

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth, and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals itself to us, we reveal it to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making its presence known on earth.

appear in ever-increasing number and in more and more papers and magazines and over more and more radio stations. The consternation among the "orthodox" grew. They became a bit alarmed. "Who is this man Robinson of Moscow?" they asked.

Then such outstanding magazines as "Time," "Newsweek," "The Pathfinder," "The Editor and Publisher" and scores more magazines and newspapers took up the cry and more and more publicity was given to this humble Movement of God, which originated in the back end of a drugstore in this little city of Moscow, Idaho. Photos of the Founder of the Movement began to appear in newspapers in many lands, and now, after ten years, the "Psychiana" Movement is attracting more international attention than any other religious movement on the face of the earth. It is still derided by "orthodoxy." It is still maligned and persecuted by "the faithful," but fortunately ly it has arrived at the place where it is well able to stand on its own feet, and instead of being at the tail-end of the religious procession, it occupies a space at the front of the caravan. For the eyes of the religious world-leaders are focused on "that man Robinson in Moscow." His teaching is entirely opposed to what "the faithful" have been taught. He denies in toto every fundamental of what has been considered as "the truths of God." Yet, no system of religion on the face of the earth can come anywhere near showing as many results of the Spirit of God in human lives as this man's Teaching can show. It mystifies them. They would like to brand him a "racketeer," yet he leads men and women to God by a method never before used or taught by "the orthodox."

And as the months and the years go by, more men and women come to this man for the "Emancipating Light" which he gives to them. And so, the Great Emancipation of mankind has begun. The Movement hasn't even scratched the surface yet. The momentum has not been attained. Orthodoxy is worried. It sees men and women by the hundreds of thousands finding the Power of the Spirit of God by methods absolutely unknown to them. It sees an utterly new conception of God being brought to the world, and it is amazed that God can be found by those studying these new methods, yet God cannot be found through the theories and the methods they teach. It is enough to make them stop, look, and think. And they are thinking with a vengeance.

The failure which these differing religious organizations have publicly recorded is worrying them. They see themselves losing their hold on mankind—if they ever had any hold on the world at large. They see their own members, by the scores of thousands, going to this new Teaching, and there finding the actual and literal Power of God, which Power they have been hungry for all their lives, yet have not been able to find in their own theories or in the preachments of their priests and ministers. For this new religion does not have either priests or ministers. And, believe it or it has no "crucified god" either. Instead, it has a Living God. It has a Living Spirit which manifests Power to all alike who seek. This, be sure, is something those of churches have never been able to do. They have been able to preserve a picture of a "crucified god" and have told the people that if they believed that this "crucified god" killed on a cross for their individual sins, some day, in some other land some mysterious way beyond a tomb, after they are dead and gone then . . . they may find God—is, if their names are written in a book which God himself is keeping in the sky, which book is called "lamb's book of life."

They see this new religion denying all these things. They hear it declaring that the Great God of this universe exists here and now, in the life of every man. And as they see so many hundreds of thousands turning to this new way of finding God they are alarmed. For they know well as anyone knows, that the average man will very willingly trade his chances of knowing God "beyond a tomb" for the actual knowledge of the Power of the Spirit of God here and now. They know that if they find and use the infinite Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth and for the securing of peace, happiness, joy, and an abundance of material and spiritual supply, they can make the trade at once.

For this new conception of

be when men and women recognize this amazing Spiritual Power.

Ofttimes I am asked how long it will be until the whole world hears of what is happening in human lives
as a result of this Great Outpouring of the Spirit of God on the earth.
Frankly, I do not know. Nor is that any of my business. Our business here in Moscow, Idaho, is to proclaim to the world the fact that God at no time was ever crucified for the sins of the world. Our business is to proclaim abroad that instead of God Almighty being killed on a cross by a handful of Roman soldiers as some pagan systems of theology teach, the Spirit of God lives on the earth today, and can be found and known by every single living soul. Moreover, all the Power that is God can be used by the whole human race. As a matter of fact, that is what God exists for.
Man cannot be complete nor can the world be complete without God, and the natural condition of man is to know the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God right here on the earth. That is our message. We are not interested in the question so often asked. We are too busy telling the wonderful story of the Great Love of God, which Love is so great that whosoever will may come and find and use the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God, and, of course, when that is done, mankind is truly emancipated.

So we witness the great spectacle of a world being re-born. The spiritual darkness which has been brought to the earth by untrue and false stories of God, is being fast eliminated. In its place is shining the True Light which is the Spirit of God. That light will shine until all false theories of God are once and forever banished from the earth.
Then, in that glorious day, men and women will know that the Power of God exists in them to the very full,

and knowing this, they will remove their eyes from any circumscribed picture of God which would have the world believe that God is "mad" at it, and "died on the cross" for it.
Shame on the organizations which have dishonored God by such insane theories of God. Thank God, indeed, the source of such theories is fast becoming known. They are dying out as they should die out. In their place is coming the Great Emancipation
... the Great Light. It has ever shone
... only, its Gleams have not been seen because another and false picture of God has been offered to the world by those who believed they really were teaching the truths of God when they offered the world a "crucified god" in the place of the Great Spirit of God, which Spirit is the Creative Intelligence behind this entire universe. That God was never killed on a cross. That God never cursed the ground on which we walk. That God never forced a wholesale drowning.
That God never asked or ordered any human organization to take charge of His affairs while He visited on other shores for a couple of thousand years. Oh, no. Not the true Spirit of God. That omnipotent, omniscient, Spirit of God never gave the "keys"
of the Kingdom of Heaven, whatever that may be, to anyone, Pope or Peasant. And if either says God did, they do not speak truly.

God is a Spirit. No man has seen God at any time. God never had either son, daughter, nephew, niece, grandmother or grandfather. The-

"SHALL WE KNOW EACH OTHER BEYOND THE TOMB?"

By Dr. Robinson

to this question? Dr. Robinson in this book gives you the answer as he sees it. It is a very beautiful piece of writing on this subject of

The Shining Light - - -

As more and more Light shines on the crucial problems of mankind, and as men begin to realize that the solution to all their problems lies close at hand, we find the religious conception of the race changing. Men of the "cloth" are doing some serious thinking. It is almost a weekly occurrence for some minister to come to us and tell us he is all befuddled. He realizes the failure of what he is trying to do. He knows there is neither Power nor inspiration in the story with which he is trying to make men and women acquainted with God. For that is the object of religion. Then he sees our Weekly and there is born in him the first faint impulses of the Great Liberating Light which is the Spirit of God. He begins to see that through the conception of the Spirit of God in each human life, the solution to all problems does lie very close at hand. And he thinks. And the more he thinks the closer does he come to God.

True, it means a staggering upset of his former preachments. True, it means throwing away the childish conception of Almighty God hanging there helpless on a cross. And there naturally is a bit of hesitation about casting those old time-worn and cherished fairy stories over the dam. But they eventually go there where they belong. And it is right that they should go over the dam. For if the story of Jesus Christ cannot save this world, then the world should get another conception of God which can save it. For the world can be saved. It can be saved through the true conception of God. That conception has not yet been brought to the world by any existing religious organization. The conception they have is but pagan idolatry. You can find the stories of a score of "crucified gods" in ancient religious traditions. And, men of the priesthood and ministry being fundamentally honest, they are thinking.

They know the truth of what we write just as well as we know it. They know that through what we write the Spirit of God is beginning to come to them. The Shining Light of the truth of God begins to illumine their otherwise dark lives. The beautiful part of this "Psychiana" ministry lies in the fact that the Realm of the Spirit of God proves itself. We do not have to prove It. All we do is to advocate and teach the truth of the present existence of the Spirit of God in each of us, and the Spirit of God does the rest. And men and women by the tens of thousands are coming to realize the amazing fact that there does shine—The True Light. Of course, it is one man and one little Movement against the entire orthodox church. And the average man would say it cannot be done. But the average man would forget one thing. He would forget the Power of the Spirit of God. And that is the very Power we depend upon. In fact it is the only Power we know anything about.

Man is so constituted that when absolute truth of God is given to him, he at once recognizes that truth. That's because the inner life of every man is the Spirit of the Living God. And God always recognizes God wherever they meet. So then, we face the future with a glorious hope and the wonderful assurance that ere long, these foolish pagan stories about God Almighty being crucified on a cross by human hands will soon go the way of all untrue stories. And then, in their place, will rule and reign supreme in all human lives, the Spirit of the Living God. There has never been brought to the earth to date a system of religious instruction which could save man and reveal God to man. The days looked black. The future looked dark. And then God in His infinite wisdom gave the vision and the inspiration to a humble drug-clerk here in Moscow, Idaho, and as a result of that vision and that inspiration, a Movement has been started which has staggered all who know its inner workings. Through this Movement, God will be made real to humanity. Wars will cease. God will dwell on the earth with man. That will be God's millenium—not the church's. Let's help hasten day.

Taxing Churches

An awful hue and cry has gone in the metropolitan area because it is proposed that certain church properties should be taxed. Opponents have gone so far as to say that if churches are taxed it will undermine religion and possibly be a spur to revolution, but what form of logic used to arrive at these conclusions has not been elaborated upon.

It is a statement of fact that a number of churches are what radicals might call "disgustingly rich." More, as time proceeds, they very often grow richer. Why should they escape taxation?

Pretentious edifices and a love of pomp and circumstance paying more a penny in taxation while people starve and die of destitution make Christianity but it is not the Christianity we were taught.

Tax the churches and sponsor revolution? Fiddlesticks! Taxing people to death, keeping the churches free of taxation, may do the damage in the long run.

Senator Borah would tell a man to go to hell as quickly as he would at him. Yet, the Senator was so fond of true religion that he was bubbling over with it. And the name of Senator Borah will live as long as time endures.

o Superstitious

The men of Athens, I perceive that the things you are too superstitious. As I passed by I beheld an altar with this inscription—"to the unknown god." He therefore, whom ye constantly worship, the same declare to you." This is a statement from the "sacred writings" of the Christian religion. It is supposed to have been said by the Apostle Paul who wrote several "letters" to different churches in those days. Incidentally, the old Apostle was quite a fibber. In fact he said it was perfectly all right to "lie" if by so doing he could bring numbers to the church. Maybe it is all right to "lie" today, too, for the same purpose, for there is plenty of lying being done in the name of that I allude to is the statement of Paul that Jesus Christ was raised by him, after the supposed resurrection. That brands the entire theory of the resurrection as false because Paul did not see Jesus Christ after the resurrection. But more of some other time. What I'm after is to bring out the thought that men and women are quite as superstitious today as they were in Paul's day. So, in fact. For enlightenment and intelligence are on the increase, and yet there still are those who will do most anything a preacher or priest asks them to do. I know a man who, while walking up the street one week, and limping, was asked by a neighbor lady what was the matter with her legs. She replied that it was because she had just gone through the entire Catholic Lenten performance which had necessitated 29 fastings in the one service. And she supposedly otherwise intelligent people will do that, well . . . There's still lots of superstition in the world.

"Psychiana" is in a somewhat similitude to that in which old Jesus Paul found himself. He said that to teach in reality, the God whom men worshipped in ignorance, is exactly what we are doing. Men today "worship" a god, and, to them, is positively unknown. They do not know what he is, where he is, or if he ever lived. Yet they send missionaries into other countries to try to "convert" the "heathen," when the fact of the matter is that their "Christian" religion actually was known to those heathen, long before they ever heard of it themselves. No one can give you anything historical or definite regarding Jesus Christ. He is the "unknown god." We of "Psychiana" are bringing to the world, the actual reality of the "unknown" god, so fervently worshipped by millions today. It is a good work. It is being successfully accomplished.

Spiritual Care

When the first and only desire of a human heart is of things pertaining to the Realm of the Spirit of God, we discover the creative source of all Power within us. Then, the spiritual Power which is God in us completely governs the material side of us. The body of flesh occupies a secondary place. We live in the Realm of the Spirit instead of the realm of the physical. Under ordinary religious teachings, we all came into being under a cloud. God made a mistake when He created man, and we travel through life under the cloud God himself put upon us at the very beginning. That is what "orthodoxy" teaches, and this, by the way, is as false as hell itself is false, and falser. But this insane theory of the "wrath of God" has caused men and women to be governed completely by the physical side of themselves. They think that what they see and experience in the material life is the Great Reality. But really it is not.

This inferiority complex was implanted in man by religious teachers who, not knowing the Spirit of God, accepted and adopted an old pagan system of theology, and offered that to the world in the name of the true God. Naturally, as fear went out, so did that foolish theory of God. And men and women now are beginning to understand that the Spiritual is the real part of them. With the overthrow of the foolish theory that God Almighty is "mad at them," they begin to know that God, instead of being "mad at them," actually has taken up His abode in them, and is manifesting in them as their very life. Quite a difference isn't it?

All the troubles on the earth today are due in their entirety to the fact that man as yet does not know God. He is a long way from God. And the reason he is so far from God is because the actual truths of God have never yet been taught to man. Therefore, man has run riot. He fights another man. One nation fights another nation. What for?—well, just because a false and unacceptable theory of God has been brought to the world by the churches. And man, not choosing to believe that foolish theory, has decided there is no God. What a pity. What a shame.

But now that the truths of God are being brought to the world, all this will change and man will live in the Spiritual consciousness and under the Spiritual care of the Spirit of God. The material and the physical will just naturally take a back seat, and, as this Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth grows, slowly at first, more speedily later, the world will run to receive the priceless new truths of the Spirit of God. 'Twill be a happy day then. For all mankind, both individual and nation can live in peace the one with the other, in the sunlight of the Spiritual care which is God.

"GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON"

ories that God Almighty had any of these, are theories which the heathen had a long time ago. They do not fit in with the truths of God as these truths are being proven to exist today. Of course, there will be tumult among the "faithful" as the Day of Emancipation approaches, but the Day will come in spite of the tumult. God will be known to all. And no priest or preacher will be necessary to the finding of the actual and literal Power of the Spirit of God, which Power exists in us all, only awaiting our calling It into play. Our bodies are the temples of the Spirit of God. That's how close God is to us all. And the very lowliest reader of this Weekly can have, any time he or she wants it, the Power of the Spirit of the Living God. And, having that Power, all Power is then given unto us in heaven and in earth. Then shall we all go tell the nations about it.

Yoga Teachings

Many letters have come in from Students asking our advice about their trying to practice different Yoga philosophies and exercises. My advice is to leave them all alone. Yoga or "Yogue" as it really is, is not for the western civilization. Its principles and practices are not suited to the western world, and a westerner cannot apply those principles without the danger of suffering mental disturbances. In India, from whence most religions came, the practice of the "Yogue" if faithfully carried out, has a lot of merit in it. But why go through a series of body-tormenting exercises in order to find God? Since the advent of "Psychiana" there has been a very notable decrease in the lecturing "Swamis" which used to reap golden harvests travelling around the country teaching their Hindoo philosophies. You seldom hear of them any more. There has been a very marked decrease also in the study of "courses" which are designed to bring "health, happiness and prosperity" through some secret learned in India or somewhere else.

There are few of these left, and what few there are, are finding the traveling increasingly difficult. The Federal Trade Commission periodically steps on their toes, and the field is not as profitable as it used to be. "Food" lecturers, etc.—all these are practically out of the picture since the advent of "Psychiana." For with this Teaching came the knowledge that the Spirit of God is the divine inhabitant of every human life, therefore, it is not necessary to practice either "Yogue" or any other system or "course" designed to make one rich through "mental exercises," etc. I suggest that our Students leave these things strictly alone. If you need light on any subject, the Spirit of God within you will bring that light. So leave the "Swamis" and the "mental" courses alone. They can do you no good.

Democracy

Wherever people are thinking they are asking this question, "Can democracy survive?" Democracy can endure, will endure, because of all political beliefs it alone gives proper Emphasis on the dignity of human life; because it alone puts the power where it should be, in the hands of the people; because under it alone can freedom of thought, of life, of religion be maintained. When dictatorship fails, it is ended. When democracy fails, it can try again. When true religion is strong, democracy thrives. To safeguard democracy in our nation, we need a re-birth of fellowship, of living, and of working together; and we also need a more direct contact with our problems, a wider understanding, and through this understanding a knowledge of how these problems are to be solved.—Rev. Emerson W. Harris, Montana Standard.

What you are is your religion. You may follow any human-made system of theology you care to, but what you really are depends upon whether or not you know the Power of the Spirit of God in your life. That then, is your religion.

Each In His Own Tongue

By William Herbert Carruth

A fire-mist and a planet,
A crystal and a cell,
A jelly-fish and a saurian,
And caves where cave-men dwell
Then a sense of Law and beauty;
And a face up-turned from the clod—
Some call it evolution,
And others call it God.

A haze on the far horizon,
The infinite tender sky,
The ripe rich tint of the cornfields
And the wild geese sailing high;
And all over upland and lowland,
The charm of the goldenrod,
Some of us call it autumn,
And others call it God

Like tides on a crescent seabeach,
When the moon is new and thin,
Into our hearts high yearnings
Come welling and surging in;
Come from the mystic ocean,
Whose rim no foot hath trod—
Some of us call it longing,
And others call it God.

A picket frozen on duty,
A mother starved for her brood
Socrates drinking the hemlock,
And Jesus on the rood;
And millions who, humble and nameless,
The straight hard pathway plod
Some call it consecration,
And others call it God.

This is Dr. Robinson's favorite piece of poetry. He carries it with him wherever he goes. The beauty of the poem will surely appeal to all.

"666"

Many requests for the Book "666" have been received. This book is out of print and it will not be reprinted. The subject matter of that book may be found in "Gleams Over the Horizon." This is the only one of Dr. Robinson's books which is out of print. The rest may all be obtained by ordering from our book dept.
