Believing Lies

DOLF Hitler recently said, "If you get a lie big enough tell it often enough, you can get millions of people to believe it." If no man ever proved the truth of a statement, Hitler has. The same is true in the realm of religion, strange as it may seem, this world in its present God-forsaken condition because of lies told in the realm of religion. I do not believe that these lies have been knowingly told, but they have been told nevertheless. If we find the truth in the realm of religion, this world will continue to present mad speed to complete destruction and annihilation. Certainly something is wrong, for no Intelligent Creator would produce such a world as we are living in now.

What I have been teaching for 12 years has incurred the wrath of every religious organization in existence, completely because there is a small percentage of priests and teachers who carefully read what I write, and agree with me, but they do not openly express this opinion because of what I have written the last years is revolutionary. What I have taught this world is that the religious structure today as we know it, is not true. In other words, it consists of lies told as the truth. Lies honestly believed to be true, but lies nevertheless.

In this article I want to analyze some of these lies a little bit and I am quite sure that the common-sense reasoning ability of the American people will agree with me.

The first lie the Christian religion teaches is that we were all "born in sin and happen in iniquity." Every sweet babe that comes to the earth is under the sword of Damocles hanging over him. He is doomed to eternal torment and punishment in hell, unless he goes to some church organization that conforms with the requirements of this organization to secure escape from this terrible doom, which God Almighty has ordained shall be his. This may sound harsh writing, but it is exactly what the Christian religion teaches. If it were not, there would be no need for any church to exist to reveal God to the human race. If we are not born in sin, then, of course, this eliminates any need for any religious organization of any sort. Now, I do not agree with any church teaching that falsely teaches this. Their prescription for escaping this terrible brimstone and hell-fire and damnation varies with different churches. There is the mass. There is conversion. There is the Lord's Supper. First and foremost, we are told, we must believe the story taught by each church, or no escape can be possible.

Now, I do not believe that the great Creative Intelligence which hurled billions upon millions of planets into existence, ever ordained that any man, or woman, or baby was born in a naturally lost condition. The animals are not born with such a curse on them. The beautiful birds that fly around, the flowers and the trees—no such curse was placed upon them. Yet the Christian church asks us to believe that the Great Creator of this universe so ordained things that unless we comply with the requirements of some church organization, we are completely doomed and worse than that, can never know God. That is lie number one.

Lie number two is the church story that 2,000 years ago, in a little village called Bethlehem, the Great Creator of this universe was actually and literally born in the womb of another man's wife and crucified on a cross. He lay dead in a tomb and later rose to save these little innocent babies and the rest of us from this terrible curse of utter destruction under which we were born. I do not believe that, either. Yet that is exactly what the entire Christian religion teaches. Other religions teach the same thing, but they have different gods. For instance, in India, Christna was born of a virgin called Mary, was crucified on a cross, and rose from the dead in order to save the world from this terrific curse which automatically falls on the heads of us all, regardless of the fact that we had nothing to say about being born. This crucified god of India was on earth 1,400 years before Christ was born. He was born on the 25th day of December, too, we are told. There are some more crucified gods who also came down to earth to save the human race from this terrible curse which God Almighty placed upon each of us, before we were born.

In several of my books I have given the names and dates of at least a score of these crucified gods of other religions and each one different. Let me say that no man or woman in their proper senses can believe such a story, when we have at least 20 such stories. We know very well that they all came from the same origin, which origin was long before the crucified god of the Christians was ever heard of.

The Catholic church, for instance, very plainly and dogmatically tells us that the Great Creator of this universe who millions and billions of years ago was creating the rocks we now see, gave to the pope the keys of the kingdom of heaven. It tells you that it is not available in any other church. It tells that this crucified god of the Christian religion founded the Roman Catholic church. It is strange, however, passing strange, that every fundamental and teaching of the Christian church was known to millions of followers of other religions thousands and thousands of years before Christianity was ever heard of. As I have previously stated, there was another crucified god, Osiris, who lived 20,000 years before Christ and this fellow taught identically the same religion and the same doctrines we are asked to believe today. Their attributed writings are very similar. Some of them are word

Two Letters

I AM giving to you this week two out of tens of thousands of letters received by us, telling what the True Spirit which is God does in everyday lives when men and women recognize that presence. Let me say here that there exists in each one of us, more than enough spiritual Power to accomplish every good thing we need. This is because God lives in us as the Great Spirit of all life. No church is necessary to know God. No bible is necessary to know God. The invisible Spirit which is God actually lives in each one of us, and all the Power that is God is available to us all. To know and use this Power, you simply recognize its existence in you, that's all. Forget blood. Forget the cross. Forget the churches. Forget everything but the Great Spirit which is God, living in you. Then, when you have reasoned it out, commune with the Spirit of God in you, and draw upon that Great Spirit for all the power, love, wisdom, justice, peace, etc., you can ever need. It's easy to find God when you know where God is. The reference to Westbrook Pegler in one of these letters refers to a series of articles this man ran some months ago, which letters were designed to make a laughing stock of "Psychiana." Somehow or other, they boomeranged, as such attempts to malign others by so-called "columnists" usually do. Here are the two letters:

"Dr. Frank B. Robinson

Moscow, Idaho

Dear Dr. Robinson:

First of all I want to tell you that I am happy and proud to call myself your Student. I was brought up in the Catholic faith, my parents being strict Catholics sent me to Catholic schools and seminary. Of course, you know the teachings of that faith, so I need not mention anything about that, for it is just a waste of time. Twelve years ago I started to drink very heavy until I became a habitual drunkard; I brought untold suffering to my family, shame and disgrace on myself. I have three boys, the oldest 16 years old, the youngest 10 years old, and the middle one 12 years old, of whom I am very proud. I didn't know what they meant to me until I became your Student. I am 43 years old and it sure has taken me a long time to come to my senses and only through your Lessons that I did come to an understanding what life and happiness really are. I studied your Lessons carefully and followed your instructions faithfully, and I accept your Teachings and God as truth.

Since I accepted your type of God and followed your instructions, I haven't taken a drink of alcoholic liquor of any kind. No alcohol has passed my lips since December, 1939. Mind you, I made no promise to quit or told anybody that I was quitting the drinks. The habit just left me suddenly and I have no craving for it. I am winning the respect of my neighbors and my family; they cannot figure out just what has come over me to cause a sudden change. They see me a different man from what I used to be. They simply can't understand the reason for the change.

When I wrote to you for the Lessons, my wife told me that I was just another sucker; I told her sucker or no sucker, I was going to get what I wanted. I told her I wanted happiness and health, and I got it. She is surprised at the Power there is in your Lessons, being that she is a strict Catholic. She doesn't read the Lessons, but she is puzzled all about it. She just can't understand how one can change to a different life in such a short time, and what sort of Power that is that can bring results. From this point on I am going to be more faithful in my studies and as I go on I will accomplish that which I need most. All of that will come to me when the time arrives.

I am enclosing a clipping which appeared in the Cleveland Press Monday, December 4, 1939. I kept it to this day to see if he were telling the truth or he knew what he was writing about. If I hadn't given your Lessons a fair trial, I would agree with Mr. Westbrook Pegler, but now I take him as a hot air artist who doesn't know what he is talking about.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Robinson:

Some time since I asked you for a young girl who had been in one year because of "heart." I wrote you two months ago. You replied to my letter.

This girl, who had been unable to have a pillow under her head, could eat nothing for fear of a heart attack, can now get up, walk, and there a little, sit in a chair, eat, and her food agrees. She is putting on flesh, but best of all her mental attitude has changed. She is happy and planning things for the future. At 19 things mean so much to one. 'Psychiana' does certain work. Everyone here says it's a miracle and doesn't understand. I thank you and bless you.

Thank you again, Dr. Robinson, and were you not so overrunning others, I could tell you how much 'Psychiana' has done for me. Very unusual things have happened since I commenced to study.

Sincerely yours,

Questions and Answers

Why is it that I never read of the shed blood of Jesus in your writings?

Sorry, but you never will. The reason is because I do not believe there is one scrap of truth in that story. Your denomination has come to the world with that story; it has been utterly unable to prove it, and it is asking the world to believe that such a story is a God-originated story. Not one single scrap of proof of such a story is available, and you will have to pardon me if I say I don't believe it. You must remember that I have the same right to advocate my philosophy of God that you have. Moreover, if you come to the world with your story and cannot prove it, there is nothing you can say when I tell the world that the story is not true. You can't prove it is true; on the other hand, I can prove to the entire satisfaction of 99 out of 100 thinking Americans that it is not true. Finally, the proof of any religion lies in its effects on human lives. It is not enough to advocate and follow a system of religion, if that system cannot disclose God to the world. Your theory of God has never been able to do that; in fact, there is a wonderful opportunity now to prove the existence of your god, if you can. I do not believe you can. I wish to repeat that in the entire absence of proof of the truth of your story, I have a right, if I so believe, to tell the world it is not true. If you, or any other theologian of the Christian or any other church, can prove to me your story, I will at once use whatever influence I have to teach your story, and not mine. That is the reason you never hear me talking about the shed blood of Jesus. I do not believe the story is other than a church origination. It most certainly is not of God, if I know anything about God, and the works we have been able to do prove that I do.

What do you think the soul is, or do you not believe a man has a soul?

The invisible part of man—that which is the motivating Power, is not the soul, but is the invisible Spirit of God in each one of us. To fully grasp that fact brings to us all the Power of the universe. If you are smart, you will find that Power, and, having found it, you will find that it will supply your every need. A proper understanding of that Supreme Power in you, will eliminate death. In other words, when the human race fully realizes that Almighty God lives in each one of us as the invisible Spirit of Life, neither death nor illness nor want nor anything else undesirable can ever manifest. This world is a good deal closer to immortality today than it dreams of. It is beginning to believe God, and to believe God, in you, is the solution to life's every problem. If the church believed that God really existed here and now in them, it could stop this madman in Europe.

Did Mark ever see Jesus?

No record was ever published of anyone who can prove that he ever saw Jesus. Evidence of that life is completely lacking. Talking about bible characters, the Apostle Paul says he saw Jesus, and by making that statement, which is a lie, by the way, he completely disproves the resurrection theory. If Paul saw Jesus Christ, the witness (?) of the rest of the gospel writers is false. Anyway, why spend so much time on a purported "son" of God when we can deal directly with God in person? Why do you do that? The whole Christian church wastes a lot of valuable time preaching and talking about Jesus Christ, when it might just as well, and much more effectively, talk about Almighty God, the Father of us all. There is much room for doubt as to the existence of Jesus Christ. There can be no room for doubt of the existence of God. The fact that the Christian church mentions the name of Jesus 100 times to every time it mentions the name of God, proves the philosophy to be only a system of theology. It proves it to be man-made, and, probably, not of God at all. If it were of God, all the church would talk about would be the Great Spirit—God. If it talks entirely about Jesus Christ, then that is all the god it ever had. Such a god is not sufficient to save this world from disaster. If I am mistaken, and he should be, he had better hurry, for disaster faces the whole civilized world.

Ques: You mention a lot of other characters which you put in the same category as Jesus, and call them all "pagan" gods. Is it not a fact that every other god than Jesus actually was a myth and a pagan god, Jesus alone being the true God?

Ans: If you can prove that, I'll give you the whole "Psychiana" Movement. There is no more historical proof that Jesus Christ was God than there is that the rest of them were God. To their own followers, all of these "gods" really and truly were Almighty God, just as Jesus Christ is considered by the Christian religion. They cannot prove it, however, and in the absence of proof, I believe it much safer and more effective to deal directly with the Great Living Spirit—God. We know God exists; we do not know that Jesus Christ ever existed.

Ques: I have studied with you for seven months and have not yet found God. Have you anything else to suggest?

Ans: Yes. Send your Lessons back and we will send you a check for whatever you have paid. We have no time to waste on anyone who takes seven months to find God, and if we feel that we can do you no good, and that is exactly how I feel about you, we reserve the right to cancel your Membership and refund your money. We do everything in our power to reveal the Spirit of God to the world, but we have neither the time nor the inclination to spend too much time on any one Student. If you cannot or will not grasp the plain, simple truths of the present existence of God, that's your hard luck. We are sorry, of course, but as I say, we cannot spend all of our time on any one Student. Times are too dangerous. Your money has already been sent you. Please return the Lessons, or give them to someone you think they will help.

Quite Right in Theory

Attorney General Robert H. Jackson was quite right when he wrote in a letter to the senate immigration committee, that the Harry Bridges affair "is insignificant." We agree with Mr. Jackson. The Boston tea party, of itself, was an insignificant display of irritation, but it was tremendously significant as illustrative of a popular demand. Unfortunately for the England of that time George III just felt, like Mr. Jackson, that the affair was "insignificant."

It is far from insignificant, however, when men can belong to organizations dedicated to the destruction of our form of government, and yet retain the protection of that government for their persons and their property.

It is far from insignificant that red tape, red herrings and official connivance helps to undermine the United States government through and by the protection of such aliens as Harry Bridges, and such movements as the communist party of America, imported from, paid for, and directed by red Russia.

Mr. Jackson is right—congress shouldn't bother itself with an insignificant thing like demanding the deportation of one single man—but when the routine of a governmental department bogs down some very insignificant things suddenly become significant. And that is just what the Bridges case is today, significant of an American policy.—Moscow Daily Idahonian.

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

The Editor.

Responsibility

As I write this, the radio is grinding out the proceedings of the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia. It is a great thing to be President of the United States in these dangerous times. It is a great honor to be a Representative or a Senator from any state at any time. Many a time, your Leader has been literally begged to enter politics. It has been pointed out that he could be of much use to his country if he were in Washington. I remember that grand old Senator from Idaho, who, shortly before his death, told me that there was one thing which would make him supremely happy, and that was to see me sitting in his chair in D. C. after he had passed on. He evidently knew death was near. I consider that the greatest compliment ever paid me. But as I sit here listening to the radio, it seems to me that a far greater responsibility rests upon the head of the one who has been chosen by God to bring to this earth the message which can bring permanent peace, and a complete knowledge of the Power of God.

For is not this more important than politics? Truly, politics are man-made, but the finer things of life are the moral and spiritual issues, which, of course, are from God. And God is always over politics and man-made institutions. So I sit here this evening, as the radio grinds on, wondering how one man, in spite of tremendous odds, can bring to the world the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God. That responsibility is mine, and, strange as it seems, I do not hesitate or shrink from that task. Thank God the world is in such a condition that only under such a condition could men be willing and ready to receive the staggering truths of God, which truths have never before been brought to this universe by anyone. I don't believe there is any danger of anyone invading the U. S. We will get into the war, all right, but we will get in because we want to get in. No one, however, will attack us. I am sorry that we shall be involved as that is entirely unnecessary. However—we shall be in the war, and shall come out on the winning side.

But civilization will never be as we have known it. It will be better. For, I repeat, before peace is restored, a new conception of God will have been brought to the earth, and men will live together without fighting. They will live in permanent peace. This could have been possible long ago had men and women been told who and what God is, and had we been told the truth about God, and the truth about the existence of the Spirit of God in each one of us. So I sit here at my little portable, charged with a message from God. Mine is a big work—too big for one man, unless that man is fully in tune with the Infinite, which your Leader happens to be.

As the months go by, you will see this Movement gradually come into the limelight. You will probably see your writer speaking in the largest auditoriums in the U. S., bringing to men and women the truths of God which have been given him to give to you. The responsibility is mine. It is yours, too, beloved. Yours is the task of providing the money with which this campaign shall start. In any event, regardless of how fast the Movement comes to the front, will find me ready and willing to accept the responsibility as I have been accepting it for 12 years. So look up—the end of this war is at hand. There will be no trumpets. There will be no "confined gods" coming down from the skies, but men and women will live in peace because they will accept sane, logical, sensible conceptions of God, the greatest spiritual Power the world has ever known—living in us in all His Power. Yes—I would rather be sitting here, doing my duty for God, than be President of the United States, great as that honor word, line for line and sentence sentence the same. Even if we go the old testament, which, by the way, is more recent than the new testament, we find the same Osiris things there.

The famous Lord's prayer of the Christian religion was known on this earth thousands of years before Christ was ever heard of. I can go on and on way indefinitely, and show that in America are asked to accept the only God that which is nothing like the sort. So then, the story that Jesus Almighty was born of a virgin and Mary was another man's wife, in a locality called Bethlehem, 2,000 years ago, is not true. The statement of Christianity that "if ye believe, ye shall be saved, and if ye do not believe, ye shall be damned" constitutes lie number two.

The Great Creative Intelligence which brought this universe into being created a perfect man. It created perfect trees and flowers. In fact, everything It created was perfect, up to the celestial sphere which surrounds us and under which we are living today. Now, these two lies eliminate completely what we know as religion, and it leaves us staggering about wondering how we can find where we are going and what the whole thing is about.

Let men and women by the millions be searching for a true knowledge of God. They know that God exists. They know that they do not feel like believing the two lies I have analyzed in this article. I have in my hand a typed Press dispatch which I am going to reproduce here:

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. (UP)—American church attendance during the decade 1926-1936 increased by 100,000, but contributions declined a quarter-billion dollars, census bureau figures disclosed today.

At start of the decade 54,500,000 members of 213 religious denominations gave $817,215,000—an average of $36 each—to support their churches. In 1936, there were 55,800,000 members of 256 denominations, with contributions totaling $518,953,000—an average of $9 each."

The dispatch very plainly shows that more people are going to church to try to find God than ever before, but it also shows that they do not find God in the church. I say this because, while one million more people go to church, the loss in contributions is a quarter-billion dollars. When a man or woman finds God, they are very happy to support the organization which brought to them the knowledge of God.

Now there is another lie to analyze and that is that Christianity has never been given a chance to save the world. This is the death song of the churches today. It has been given every chance to save the world. Its missionaries have gone into every corner of the earth. This government has given it its property tax free. It is given free time on the radio. It is allowed to stand on the street and on the church corner and preach, and still the only excuse for its failure is that "Christianity has never been tried." That, I say, is lie number three.

To be brutally frank, this world is in its present condition because Christianity has been tried. A man who knows nothing about religion walks up the street some Sunday night and he sees a little religious group gathered there. Maybe it is the Salvation Army, The Methodist church, or it may be a Holy Roller organization; in fact, it may be any one of a dozen forms. What does that man hear? He is politely told that unless he believes that he is a natural born sinner and that Jesus Christ died on the cross to save him from his sins, he is destined to swim eternally in a great lake of brimstone and fire.

If that man is anything like I am, he will stick his hands in his pockets and walk away. Yet that is the Christian story of God as taught in the Christian bible, and I say with all the energy I possess, that this story is not true, never was true, and never will be true.

As a matter of fact, had that story never been told, this world would know God today, and there would be no such catastrophe as we are now witnessing. The reason the nations of the world are warring and the reason we have mad dictators is because the plain, simple truths of God have never been brought to this earth by any church organization in existence. They have not meant to tell us lies, but they have told us lies nevertheless.

My job is to come to the world with the truths of God and let these truths eliminate what is so evidently religious tradition absorbed entirely from older and pagan systems of religion. This world does not want the blood of Jesus Christ at all. What this world wants is to know the present existence of the Invisible Spirit which is God, which created this universe millions of years ago, and which did a good job in that creation.

Hitler is right in his statement. A lie repeated often enough will be believed by millions. I publicly brand the story of the Christian church as a fabric of lies from beginning to end. I do this for two reasons. First, I want to help the church find God. Second, we of this Movement know that God exists entirely outside of the teaching of the Christian religions or any other religion. I have not time in this article to go any further, but in closing, may I say to you that the plain, simple fact of religion is that when the Invisible Power which is God created man in the first place, He did a good job. He created you perfect. You may be perfect today, through simply recognizing in you the Invisible Spirit which is God, for let me assure you that that Spirit

Now we have to jump to Warsaw, Ind., and this letter happens to be another one talking about physical healing.

For some years I kept track of the different diseases and illnesses which had been overcome through recognizing the existence of the Spirit of God in the universe. I do not believe there is a single disease known which this Power has not healed. For 12 years I have been giving you cases of cancer which have disappeared through the Power of the Spirit of God. It will be a wonderful thing when the whole world knows the staggering Power that is at the disposal of all of us. The strange part of it is that it is not necessary to believe in anything any religious organization teaches in order to know the Power of the Spirit of God. No church in existence—Catholic or Protestant—has anything in its teaching which was not derived from ancient systems of religion which we now call "heathen." Every fundamental of the Christian religion was known to the pagans hundreds of thousands of years before the Christian religion was ever heard of. This I have abundantly proved in my two books "CRUCIFIED GODS GALORE" and "GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON."

It is interesting to note by the way, that although these books have been studied in almost every theological seminary in this country, no member of the faculty or preacher has dared to take exception to anything I have written. I am something like Wendell Willkie. I believe there should be free and open debate on this question of religion. Certainly what we have offered to us by the churches today as a religion will never satisfy anyone. Equally certain is it that it cannot stop such men as Hitler. It will not be long before the real truth of God as we are teaching it is known throughout the entire world, and when that day comes the object of creation will be known and God will be recognized by every single inhabitant of this globe.

Now to our letter from Warsaw, Ind. The Student lives on Winona Avenue.

"On March 19, I wrote you from Dayton, Ohio, relative to my father's condition and of injuries he had received on March 16. I received your letters of March 24 and 31 respectively.

"For your information father was operated on to reduce the fractures on April 26. Two hours and 55 minutes were required to complete the work. His condition today and since the operation has been one of bounding success. There was very little pain and those in charge are amazed to see such speedy, successful healing and recovery. Thanks very much for your assistance in this case. We are happy over the results."

We go now to S. E. Grand Avenue in Portland, Oregon. We have many Students in the state of Oregon as our advertising appears quite regularly in the Portland Oregonian, which, by the way, is one of the greatest newspapers in the United States today. I happen to be personally acquainted with the publisher, Palmer Hoyt, and he is a real fellow. I would like to have all my Oregon students subscribe to and read the Oregonian if they do not do it anyway.

Now, here is the letter from S. E. Grand Avenue in Portland, Oregon:

"Getting such great results through your Lessons, and when I read and think through them I just seem to fill up inside and feel so happy. All trouble which has been mountains high in the past seems very small now, and I await anxiously for the next Lessons. Each one seems so much easier and clearer to me.

"Enclosed find two dollars to help spread this great God-law as I now know it exists here on the earth. May the great God-Power sustain and guide you in this marvelous work for many years to come."

In commenting on this letter let me say that if there is a Student anywhere who is well fixed financially, he or she can do marvelous work by assisting this Movement financially. I think every follower of mine should make a sacrifice if he is able, to bring this new conception of God to this earth. I think that this will come shortly when some wealthy man or woman or corporation will make available to me funds which are necessary to really spread this Teaching all over the world.

In the meantime, regardless of payments for Lessons, I invite every Student to send in an additional donation to this work, always remembering that no one connected with the Movement gets anything more than a salary, and in my case, necessary travelling expenses. We operate under an Idaho religious charter and our sole object is to bring to men and women the truth of God.

Now we come to New York City and find here a wonderful Student among the tens of thousands we have in New York, who has actually and literally found the Power of the Invisible Spirit of God. This letter is too long to reproduce in full, so I will quote from it. This good lady, Mrs. Pruitt, begins her letter like this:

"My heart is bubbling over. I am so thrilled over your wonderful book 'GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON.' I received it Saturday morning and finished reading it Monday night. I could not lay it down for long. It is such an astounding truth. I wonder why, oh why, have we been so long in getting facts. One reason is we are just ignorant. Another is that we have not taken time to study out the truths for ourselves. I do hope the good God will keep you young and youthful until this wonderful Truth of God is spread to the four corners of the world."

Regarding this book, "GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON," let me state that its sale has been very great. I was awarded an honorable membership in the Eugene Field Society for having written this book. I consider that a great honor.

What this world needs is just the plain, simple facts about God. It is not how those facts came to be. Church organizations have come along with their childish prattle and instead of teaching this world the truths of the simple existence of God in every life they have filled the world with cock and bull stories about God being born of another man's wife, crucified on the cross, resurrected from the dead, and a lot of other tommyrot.

We realize that these institutions honestly believe what they teach, at least some of them do. But I am telling this world that they have nothing to offer which was not known to the pagans thousands of years before ever a Catholic or Protestant was heard of.

It is the simple, plain truths of God which will accomplish miracles that letters of this sort tell of. It is the duty of every friend of this organization to help me financially in every way possible bring these truths to the world. I only one man. I stand and fight. Naturally I am opposed by both Catholic and Protestant. These religions, however, being founded in fiction and not in fact are not quite big enough to down movement which operates through actual Power of the Spirit of God.

Hitler Has His Triumph

"The return of Hitler to Berlin after the crushing of France, on the occasion for the holding of such a triumph as was celebrated by Roman generals of long ago. The leader paraded before his people in pomp, on a carpet of flowers, and all that was lacking for close similarity with the barbaric past was the dreary procession of prisoners in chains.

This seeming aspect of the triumph should not delude us. The pompous progress of Hitler through the flower-strewn streets of the German capital was figuratively, and to an approximation of fact, over the piled and gory bodies of women and children instead of gay flowers. The apostle of total warfare, he had trampled them down with iron and flame—this mass-murderer of ages.

The beast may prevail without being heroic. The shark, the wolf, the great cat, and all monsters respond to the lust for killing, but are never heroic. Yet in extenuation of their blood-lust far more can be said than for his. Let us keep our record straight and clear in our minds, nor be confused by the pretence of victory. He is as lost to his kind as any beast of prey.

If the moans of the innocent and their agony could have risen as Hitler rode in his triumph through the streets of the German city, the utter cheers of the populace would have been lost in that single great oration. A conqueror, yes—but never a hero." —Qu

Wear Your Badge

If you have not already received you will receive a "Psychiana" ritual Blitzkrieg badge. On this badge is a picture of Hitler, with statement that the Spirit of God bring about his speedy downfall. These badges will be ordered by the million, if necessary, and given free to all who will wear them. One will have gone, with an issue of this magazine, and all I ask is that you wear the badge and repeat the statement which appears on the badge. Every member of the organization will also receive one of these badges in his or her Lessons, and the wearing of this badge, coupled with the affirmation of fact on the badge, will do more to bring Adolf Hitler to his knees than anything else. It is more powerful than battleships. Hitler and his circle-in-i can probably build more things than the rest of the world can, but neither of them can use the Power of the Spirit of God, and after it is said and done, the Creator of the universe is still in control. Right is still stronger than physical or material might. That's something Hitler doesn't know yet. He will find out.

When our Students keep quiet and show the actual Power of God against Hitler and all other world disturbers, they cannot last. They cannot shoot up the ammunition they have amassed, but their end is sure. Hitler can never overrule right. That is the reason I want every one of you to wear this badge, and when people ask you and talk to you about it, tell them that, too, can have a badge if they write in for it. You see—you know, and I know, that all the Power of God is God abides in us. We also know that the way to bring desired objects from God into being, is to link them into existence. This is the way the method with God. All that then, we desire the doom of Hitler and other world disturbers, so we speak that doom into being through the indwelling Power of the Spirit of God. You see that?

We do not need to bother our heads about how God will bring their doom, that will automatically come as a natural result of the Power of God thrown against them. So wear your badge. Wear it always. Let others read it, and have them send to us for more. They cost nothing. We give them away free. You may or may not have received yours when this article appears, but if you haven't, you will. May the Infinite Spirit of God, the Great Creative Indwelling Spirit, be ever in your thoughts. Hitler won't last if It is.

Pilot

He has looked mildly at the massive world
 We groundlings feel so sure of while it tipped,
 Canted and reeled beneath him; stood on edge
 And crawled as monsters do in dreams,
 Contralogue, till it filled the sky
 Over his hide-casqued skull.
 He understands the wind.

Uses its muscles to contrive huge swoops,
 And turns those to the function of materiel
 Wherewith to build taut bridges through the air
 And over these trestles hauls the stuffs,
 Bizarre and practical, that earth-bound folk
 Have requisition for to serve their earthbound ends.

Nor not all merchandise, his cargo-age;
 For presently he jerks across a space
 Men of his race, if foreign to his breed;
 Sits in their sight appendaged to his intricate machine,
 With them, entrusted to a mystery;
 Detached from them, its master.
 And sometimes more than master:
 He embarks
 On other missions when the fools
 Of protocol, the dupes of unsemantic, empty words
 Enmesh the crazy gears of war. He speeds to kill.
 Then is he part and hard projection of his craft;
 Not intellect directs him then to mad
 And marvelous maneuver now precise, now wild.
 Like straddling lightning, he can understand

Partly the force he rides with, none its strength.
 Machine-gun trigger, bomb release,
 Handles of swift assassination he can grasp
 And trip wide, like a file clerk, unconcerned,
 Inserting death notices of unknown men
 Absently in a vast drawer called "WAR."

If you have thought then, how could it concern
 More than his tiny chance of safe return,
 One order executed, to his base,
 Tangentially pluck another, and again
 Dare blind annihilation dealing it?
 Pity this man, nor envy him, but let him be.
 He has no death except he be wrenched down
 Permanently to earth and leave no more
 Its prisoning expanse. And if he dream,
 His dream need reach no further than the air,
 Need be no more substantial than bare space,
 Need have no terminal but endless flight,
 So that he die at work, with less of masquerade,
 And more of honor than his fellow men.

"PSYCHIANA," INC.
 Moscow, Idaho, U. S. A.

Church Union

I have written in this magazine before on this. I want to write again. I happen to know that the heads of more than one large religious denomination read every word of every issue of the "Psychiana" Weekly, and I also know that there is quite a feeling that the Founder of this Movement should be consulted by the different church heads. I hope that day comes soon. But whether it does or not, I give out the following suggestion for their consideration. Let all churches, Catholic, Protestant, Jewish and Gentile, all unite. Let them throw away everything they have—creeds, dogmas, rites, rituals, in fact, everything they have preached, and let them all then unite. They can do this if they will lay these aside; and, by the way, they will have to do this if they ever take part in the regeneration of the human race through the Spirit of God, which regeneration is on its way now.

After they have put these dividing factors of their beliefs to one side, they can all agree on one thing. That one thing is all they need to agree on, anyway. But they never have done that. Well, here is the one thing they can all agree on—they can agree on the present existence of the Great Spirit—God. Then, that one thing agreed on, they can spring into action, and literally throw the Power of that Great Spirit—God, against the forces of evil which are devastating this earth, and which will continue to devastate it until someone with enough faith in the Power of God to stop it, comes along. After this union has been effected, the members of every church can embark upon a series of spiritual exercises which will actually put God to the test. These exercises will literally bring the Power of God into action, stopping this war, or there isn't any Higher Power.

Let me impress upon all churches that these days are too serious to quarrel and stay apart over matters of doctrine. What any church "believes" does not enter into the situation at all. It is not a case of what anyone or any church says it "believes." It is a case of whether or not God still lives, and, if He does, whether he has the Power to stop these madmen, and bring universal peace to the earth. I know God lives. I know God has that Power. But I cannot get into the churches with it. Under such a union, Hitler would not be able to stand against the unified churches, if they actually threw the Power of the Spirit of God against him.

As churches exist today, all they do is to do a bit of praying on Sunday, and follow a prescribed form or "worship." But they cannot do one thing to stop this war; therefore, of what use are they? If they were all united and operating together under and by the Power of the Spirit of God, they could be a force that not even Hitler could withstand. I do not know if the churches will take this advice. I trust they do. If they do, they will have their part in the Great Day of God which is close at hand. If they do not, someone else, and some other organization, will be there, and the church will be able to lay its failure at its own door, because it allowed creed, rite, ritual and doctrine to take first place, leaving God on the outside waiting to get in. That's where God stands today. That's where God is liable to stand unless such a union as I have suggested here be adopted.

I don't know whether you could get the Catholic church to back up or not. I don't know whether you could get any other church to back up, standing on the Power of the Spirit of God without any of the man-made entangling alliances it now has. I know this: I know that they are useless as they exist now. Not even the pope, who tells us that he is the only one authorized to act and teach for God, can do a single thing about this ghastly calamity. Evidently he does not know enough about the Spirit of God to throw It into play. Well, if he will back up, and if all the rest of them will get together and call upon the Spirit of God to help, they will find that the Spirit of God has already paved the way, and brought into existence the simple man who can lead them into all Truth. We stand ready to help.

Believing Lies

lives in you or you could not take another breath. First of all, God is life—then God is peace and there are many other things God is. All of the things exist in you, because you are directly linked, as long as you live, with the Great Realm of God. As long as you live, the Power of the Spirit of God lives in you. Now let me tell you why there are limitations in you if there is in you all the Power of God, available to you? Only because church organizations have come into this world with a bible in one hand and a cross in the other hand. I told you that you were eternally damned, and you have believed what they taught.

It is about time the American people awakened, and believe me, they are awakening. If there is a reader of this magazine who does not know the Power of the Spirit of God who lives in him or her, I ask that reader to get alone somewhere and commune with the Spirit of God which lives within him or her. Keep quiet and overcome the religious inferiority complex which the Christian church has placed in you by throwing against that complex an affirmation which will nullify it very fast. First, recognize the logic of what I have told you in this article and then recognize the indwelling Power of Creative Intellect which made the universe, right in you; then give the Power a chance to work by repeating this simple statement of fact: I have the Power of God in me—I have the Power of God in me.

You will not be doing this very long before there wells up in you a source of Power you have never known before. When that Power develops to the full, and when this Psychiana Movement is known all over the world, as it will be known, not only you but the entire human race will be freed of the damnable chains which bind it, which chains were placed there by the Christian church, telling the people that they were "born in sin and shapen in iniquity" and could not find any escape unless they believed in what the church taught.

Following this war will come a great spiritual awakening. The Psychiana Movement will lead that awakening. All the world needs to know is the fact that the Spirit which is God lives in each one of us. Now think this over and find and use that Great Spirit
