formed. Naturally, these good souls, most of them members of some religious organization or other, want to know the truth of the bible story and of the teachings of Christianity. For these teachings are so fundamentally opposed to what is actually happening here, that it seems hard to conceive of the story of Jesus Christ being accepted, whether truly or nominally, by so many people. They want that explained. In this article I shall explain it by giving facts which everyone who cares to can prove are facts.

These facts should have been known a long time ago. They have been known to church leaders, but they have not been given to the world by those church leaders. Had they been, the entire set-up would never have been believed, and, the chances are, the beautiful revelations which are now coming to this earth as the result of the discovery of the Power of the Spirit of God in human lives, would have been known to humanity a long time ago.

Had this been done, there would be no such condition as we see now in the world. The fact that after 2,000 years of the Christian theology the world is in the God-forsaken condition in which it now finds itself, is absolutely conclusive evidence that the literal Spirit of the Living God, the Creator of this universe, cannot be in anything either the Christian religion or the Christian church teaches. The world knows full well that the Power of the Spirit of God has not been revealed to the world. The world, and every man in it, instinctively knows that there is a Supreme Creative Intelligence be-question arises because so many thousands are, for the first time in their lives, actually finding the Power of the Spirit of God. As this happens, the good souls wonder, as well they should, why this beautiful Power was not brought to the world a long time ago.

They know the Power has existed from time immemorial, but they cannot conceive of such a blaze of glory being hidden for so many years. They

The Blitzkrieg

Many Students have responded to our drive for $100,000 and we thank them all. A good Student in Grand Rapids, Michigan, wired us $100 and several others have done the same thing. There is no question in my mind but what I can, if sufficiently financed, bring this whole world to see the plain, simple truths of God. Nor is there any question in my mind but what the needed sum of money will be forthcoming from our Students and others who want to see the Power of God replace the power of hate, strife, war, and the rest of the ghastly forces which seem to have this world in their control. Really they haven't. Look and see how Hitler to date has miserably failed to do what he intended to do. He knows by this time, and so does Mussolini, that their cause is completely lost. They both know that there is not the slightest chance of them putting their insane totalitarian principles over the earth. They really are not principles, because every true principle is founded on right and justice, while nothing these totalitarians have is founded on anything other than brute force.

No reign of peace can come to this earth through the bombing plane, the submarine, or through any other instrument of murder, and any would-be "world savior" who operates on that principle is lost before he starts. The divine spark of God is missing. And when that spark is missing, nothing good can be in anything they originate. No—they are even now hopelessly lost. Their cause has failed. Pellagra has broken out among the poor Italians, and they are steadily but surely revolting against this unholy German alliance. Denmark, Norway, and other nations are making their protests known. It was August 15 that the house painter promised his German dupes that he would be in England. Then it was September 15, then October 15. He still is not there, and he will never be there as a conqueror.

When Mussolini was making up his mind to throw in his lot with Adolf, I wired him advising against it. I told him plainly that if he did, he would be throwing in his lot against the Spirit of God, and I asked him if he thought he was a big enough man to prevail against all the Powers of righteousness. When Hitler started his mad rampage, I sent him a similar wire. Now, I believe they know that I knew whereof I spoke. The reason they shall fail, as everything wrong must fail, is because they leave God Almighty entirely out of their reckonings. And when that is done, of course they fail. This can be easily understood when the true conception of God is grasped. God is not some anthropomorphic being far removed from this creation. God is not some man who appeared on the earth and was crucified on a cross some 2,000 years ago. God is far more than that.

In reality, God is the Spirit of Infinite Life and Infinite Good. In that definition is embodied everything fine, everything true, everything noble. Nothing more than this definition of God can ever be necessary for the complete salvation of the human race. Nothing outside of this definition can ever be of service to the human race. Crosses, crucifixes, confession boxes, Lord's Suppers, penitent forms—all these, and everything connected with them, just bring to this world the wrong picture of Almighty God. These so-called "religious" exercises and "beliefs" are but a remnant of the "religions" of the dark ages. They can, therefore, be of absolutely no use to us today. They cannot reveal God to man. All they can do is to compel subservience to some man-made system of theology, but none of these systems can do one single thing toward revealing God to man.

God is the invisible Spirit of everything Good. God is the Spirit of invisible Life. God is the Spirit of health. God is the Spirit of limitless peace. In fact, God is the Spirit of everything Good. At no time did God make some special revelation of himself to some church organization, and any organization which tells us that it and it alone is the only organization authorized to teach and speak for God, is telling us something that is not true. Yet all religions of today have some sort of impossible statement which they ask you and me to believe, telling us that if we believe them we shall be saved, but if we do not believe them we shall be damned. There is nothing held by any system of religion today which can reveal anything to man, if that something is out of God's being the invisible Spirit of everything Good.

There is no need for man-made theories of God. There is no need for "churches" or other meeting places where people may gather together to "worship" God, for God needs no worship. This is a fallacy of the different churches. They build buildings with human hands, but God is not to be found in that sort of building. The things of God are spiritual, therefore, these man-made things are not necessary. When God is recognized in the human life, where is the need for gathering together to bow down the knee or to pray or do any of the things the churches ask us to do today? There is no need. Only the untrue conception of God requires these exercises, which, while in themselves may do no harm, stultify man's conception of God and God's conception of man.

Our "Blitzkrieg" is very much more powerful than anyone realizes. There is more actual spiritual Power being thrown against Hitler and Mussolini through it than can be imagined. Spiritual Power never is visible, but the one who knows God can stand up and throw the Power of the Spirit of God (Good) against these world disturbers to such a degree that their doom is absolutely assured. This is being done by us all over the world.

Questions and Answers

es: You stated in one of your Lessons that we should never know each other beyond the tomb as we know each other now. The minister of our church says we shall. He says we shall be raised as a spiritual body. Is this true?

es: There is no such thing as a "spiritual body." If it is a body, it is not Spirit. If it is Spirit, it cannot be a body. I don't know where your minister got his information. I'm sure I haven't seen anyone who ever came back from "beyond the tomb" and I don't think he has, either. As I see it, and of course I know no more about it than your minister does, but as I see it, the body at death is buried. There is no possible way that body can be resurrected. That leaves only the Spirit, which is God surely. Then, that being a fact, at the death of the physical body do you not suppose the Life-Spirit which has occupied that body and given it life goes back into the great ocean of life from whence it came? Does not that seem reasonable to you? When the Spirit of God came into your body at birth, it did not come in any definite form. Sufficient of the Spirit of God came to you to make you a living soul. As the Christian would say, "God breathed into your nostrils the breath of life." There was no form to that spiritual birth. I don't believe there will be any form after we drop this house of clay. I may be wrong. I have no way of absolutely knowing, and I'm not too interested in that. There are much more important things to give me food for thought, such as the bringing to mankind the God-consciousness. That is much more important for me, and it should be for you too, don't you think?

es: Your mother, according to your Life-Story, was a sainted Christian woman. I believe she must have been. Yet you do not accept Jesus Christ as God. Why?

es: Because I know too much about the origin of the story. I have said many times that I wish the story were true. My work would be a lot easier then. If that story were true, then the past 2,000 years have been a travesty on God. If Jesus is coming back to save this world, he could have saved a lot of bloodshed by saving it while he was here before. Please don't think it's easy for me to take this stand. It is very hard, for I love the church just as much as you do. I KNOW THE TRUTH about the inception of the Christian theology, and it cannot be accepted by anyone who knows the truth. Regarding my mother, she didn't need to believe in anyone. She was just naturally so lovely and pure that she instinctively knew GOD in her. It is quite possible for folks to believe in anything AS GOD and if they believe hard enough, that belief CAN BECOME a god to that one, but by clearing away the rubbish which has cluttered up theology today, and which has hidden the truth from men, I am getting down to bedrock. As the situation exists now, according to the Christian religion, no one can know God unless he knows God through Jesus Christ. But a dozen religions make that same claim. My philosophy is very simple, my friend. I believe, and have abundantly proved that all may know God, regardless of, and in the absence of any church affiliation of any sort. You teach that God is confined in His activities to YOUR church. I do not believe that. Neither will you if you ponder it for a few hours.

Ques: Would you advocate the dissolution of all churches, seeing that they are teaching "pagan superstition" in the name of God?

Ans: I maintain that it would be far better for no church to exist than for them to teach a theory of God which can easily be proved to be untrue. Falsity and error never will lead this world to God. What the church should do is to cast away forever the theories by which it came into existence; throw away its paganism and idolatry; and teach the one and only thing which can save this world and humanity. That one thing is the Spirit of God. Yet, it's about the only thing you hear nothing about in the churches. You can hear Jesus this, and Jesus that, but not a single sermon can you hear on the Spirit of God. In fact, so far as the church goes, that Great Spirit might as well never exist. Granting for sake of argument that Jesus did exist, we know he died 2,000 years ago and has never been heard from since. Then why does not the church forget that for a while, and concentrate on the ever-present Spirit of God, always provided, of course, that the church believes in the Spirit of God. To follow its sermons you would never know it, if it does.

The Spiritual Power of Good, or God, is too great for anyone, even a house painter who is mad as a march hare, to overcome. Then why should I not ask men and women all over the world to help me put this true conception of God around the earth?

Old time religions are dying on their feet. There is nothing in them which can even begin to step into this world's sad picture and either reveal God or bring peace. But the invisible Spirit of God can do this, and this world is now, as I write this, awaiting the coming of the man who can present the true picture of God to the world. The Founder of this Movement is the man who can do that. This has been abundantly demonstrated over the past 12 years, has it not? All I need now is sufficient finances, and I believe I can bring to this earth such a spiritual awakening that peace, the eternal peace of God, shall once and forever take control of the lives and hearts of men, and when that happens, this earth will be free. You will help me, wont' you?

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

hind this creative scheme of things. The world also knows that this Great Source of Intelligence and Spiritual Life has not been revealed to the world to date by any system of religion in existence, with the exception of this present "Psychiana" Movement.

The world knows something else, too. It instinctively knows that man should be able to find the Divine Presence. It knows that civilization without that Divine Presence is no civilization at all. It knows that the ghastly condition of this world today exists because the Divine Presence of God has not yet been either discovered or brought to the human race. So, many are saying, "There is no God," and are wandering off into the dangerous and deadly realm of atheism, all because the truths of God have not yet been brought to the world by any system of theology.

The world wants to know why.

You cannot kill belief in God, but you can kill belief in an organization which represents God, or rather which says it does; and you will lose belief in such an organization after a certain length of time.

That is the condition of the world today, insofar as the differing religious bodies are concerned. The world knows that none of them have been able to bring to the world the Liberating Truths of the Spirit of God. Had they done this, God would now be dwelling with man, and earth would be a paradise.

Now, there must be a reason why these religious organizations have so signally failed to bring God to man. There is a reason, and the reason is not hard to find. In a nutshell, the reason for the failure of the churches of today to reveal God to humanity is because these religious organizations do not know what the truths of God are. You say: "They come to us with a bible and a system of religion which they claim is of God." True, they do that, and in this article I am going to give to the world just where that story and that bible originated; for neither are, as the church claims, of God. Quite to the contrary. They both are man-made, and, by the way, church-made systems of theology, which are so far from God that there are no truths of God in either the bible or the Christian religion.

What I am writing here I write kindly. It will not be liked by the church. I am sorry, but it is not a case of whether the church likes what I write or not. It is a case of whether what I write is true or not. You may depend upon it that unless I know whereof I speak, I should not speak. Now that the Spirit of God is pouring out on this world Its healing powers, it has been definitely established that there must be other truths of God than those given to the world by any church. There are. As a matter of fact, we shall see before we close this article that neither the Christian bible nor the Christian church knows anything at all about God, as that Great Spirit is revealing Itself to humanity today, and through this Movement.

This is a staggering statement. Only a fool or a man in close harmony with the Realm of the Spirit of God would make such a statement. I have never been considered a fool. We know, and we can very abundantly demonstrate here in Moscow, that the Spirit of God is being revealed to humanity in a manner the like of which has never been seen on earth. Therefore, we know God must be behind this Movement, else the Spirit of God could not manifest through it as It is. This Spirit is manifesting through any church; therefore, it may be taken as an assured fact that no church knows the Spirit of God. If any church you couldn't hold it. It would broadcast the good news to the world. Instead of that, the church opens for an hour on Sunday, sings a few songs, pays a few dollars, and spends tens to half an hour's talk by a minister, and then locks the doors another week.

It could not do that and know God. I think, therefore, we can rest assured that neither the church nor the bible can reveal God to man. If this be a fact, then the truth of God does not lie in anything either the church or the bible teaches. If the truth of God does not lie in those, then it does lie somewhere else, and men and women to whom we want to know where that truth of God lies. They are hungry for the Spirit of God, yet they do not know where to find God. They have tried everything the bible and the church have to offer, and they are no closer to knowing God than they ever were.

I am making the plain, simple.

statement at this time that the church, on what it teaches, cannot reveal God to man, because it knows absolutely nothing about God. I repeat, I make the statement kindly. Nevertheless, I make it. I will prove it. Not because I care to show up another's religion as false, but because of the desperate condition of the world today. Only the Spirit of God can save humanity. If that Spirit cannot be found by what the bible and the church teaches, you may depend upon it, It is to be found elsewhere. That is why I write as I do. Not to hurt—not to destroy—but to bring to suffering humanity the Power of the Spirit of God, as that Great Spirit has been revealed to me. I might say here that I have tackled a tremendous job. A super-human job. Not—the Power of the Spirit of God, through this Movement, reveals Itself. I have nothing to do with it. I am merely the agent who writes down what the Spirit of God directs me to write.

I shall say here that the Spirit of God cannot be revealed to this world universally or any other way through anything either the Roman church or the Protestant church teaches, for had there been no Roman church, there would have been no Protestant church. I am making the statement that the whole church structure is a gigantic system of "churchism" founded by the Roman Dictator Constantine, and has nothing connected with the Spirit of God in it.

It is a system of theology. Every fundamental of it was copied from a far older system of religion which the world now calls "pagan." It cannot be proved that God ever had anything to do with either the Catholic or the Protestant church. Of course, I could write a book on this subject, but I do not intend to spend too much time on it. I do believe, though, the world should know the truth of both the origin of the Christian religion and the history of the Christian bible. When you may decide for yourself whether either is of God or of man, you will find they are both man-made.

About A. D. 325 Constantine was the emperor or dictator of the Roman Empire. He decided to start a system of religion. So a group of old patriarchs of Rome were gathered together at Nicea. There, they formulated what is now known as the Christian religion, 325 years after the supposed time of Christ. Naturally, they had to have some other system of religion on which to base the Christian religion, and what probably happened is that they turned to what was then, and what still is, the largest operating system of religion in the world, the religion of India. They copied every fundamental of that system of religion. If the Hindoo religion today is "pagan," as the Roman church calls it, so is the Roman religion, for every fundamental of that religion was known to, and taught by, the people of India 1,400 years before the Christian religion was ever heard of.

Now, listen carefully, and remember the date on which this happened—325 years after the supposed time of Christ. Not one single original manuscript covering anything in the Christian bible has ever been known to exist. We will come to that later. But remember it here. Not one single authentic original manuscript covering anything in the Christian bible has ever been known to exist. If you ask the church about that—how about proof of the four gospels, it will tell you these old manuscripts were all lost. In other words, they never did exist, for manuscripts as valuable as those must have been, should have been very carefully guarded. They were not, and insofar as possessing the slightest scrap of evidence of the bible as the word of God, or of Jesus Christ ever having existed—that evidence never was known to exist.

Then where did the Emperor Constantine get the foundation for the Christian religion? Let me give you a few facts which any large public library will give you. Then see if you can't figure it out the same way I did. The religion of India had for its God—a trinity. So the Christian religion also was given a trinity. This "trinity" consisted of three gods, all in one, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Thereby, the Hindoo religion was copied in that respect. They both have a trinity consisting of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, but the Hindoo had that trinity 1,400 years before the supposed time of Christ.

In the Hindoo religion the "active" part of the trinity came down to earth to save it from sin, and that was the "son," or second part of this supposed "trinity." The name of the second part of the Hindoo trinity was Jeseus Chrishna. So Constantine probably copied the name also, and we now have, as the second part of the Christian trinity, Jesus Christ. Perhaps coincidence—but not very likely in view of the fact of the "lost" manuscripts, which, did they exist, would prove beyond a shadow of doubt the truth of the story. But they do not exist, and every man or woman who "believes" in Jesus Christ or the Christian story of "salvation" is believing in a theory which, to say the least, cannot be proved, and has no basis in evidential fact. Add to this

With Our... Students

Now we go to Paterson, New Jersey, for a letter which was received on the 27th of May, 1940, from a good Student who lives on Lane Street. This is what she says:

"I received your fifth Lesson and I think it is wonderful. I am reading my Lessons every day, but I think this mighty God-Law seems very strange to me, not being a personality. I do not quite understand how this Power can operate and not have life; but you are the teacher and I am only the Student."

This lady has not quite seen what I am teaching because she says that she does not understand how this Power can operate and not have life. Well this Power not only has life but is life. As a matter of fact, this invisible life which is God is the creative Power which gives life now to every living thing on the face of the earth, regardless of what sort of life it may be. So many people have been told that God Almighty was a man walking round this earth as we do, that it is sometimes a little difficult to conceive of God being an invisible Spirit never having manifested as a carpenter or any other man. I suppose I would be perfectly correct if I stated that every manifestation of life derives its Power to live from the great ocean of life which is God. I see through my window now two maple trees and an elm tree. I have watched these trees grow over the past twelve years. The life of these trees comes from God; they cannot grow automatically. And so does the life of everything else come from God. So if Mrs. Bryan of Paterson, New Jersey, will get this conception of Deity, she will be supremely happy for she will discover that she is not only close to God but is an actual part of the great Spirit which is God.

The next letter comes from the penitentiary in Dannemora, New York, Student Number 26-251. As you probably know I send these Lessons free of charge to anyone confined in a State or Federal prison. The letters I receive from these persons would make your heart ache sometimes to read them. This prisoner states that there is so much interest among the inmates of Dannemora prison that he wants to know if the Lessons can be passed around, although he states that they are well-worn from constant use. I immediately ordered more Lessons sent to my friend and also told him to send me the names of other inmates who would like to receive these Lessons. This good fellow states that his thoughts and life are changing for the better in every way. That is quite natural. I do not care what mistakes a man has made in the past nor do I care whether he is in Dannemora prison or sitting in the White House. The same great Spirit is the originator of us all and the same great Spirit can be drawn up by us all. Let's learn that lesson well.

From New York City, West 64th St., Student Number 26-778, comes a wonderful letter, the object of which was to inform me that this Student felt seventy-five per cent better since he started to receive these Lessons. He closes his letter by stating that he is doing all I want him to do regarding the madman of Europe. I do not know how many people there are in the United States who are throwing the weight of Spiritual Power against this madman but I do know that the handwriting is already on the wall. There is no more chance of this man subduing this earth than there is of the stars falling out of the heavens. This man Hitler is a manifestation and a direct result of a world without God. Mr. Hitler knows what the churches teach. He knows all the different gods which have been offered the world from their many crosses, and he figures that if this is all religion has to offer he will do by force what he wants to do. But he makes a mistake; he reckons without one thing. He does not know that the true picture of God has not yet been brought to this earth by any church organization. This mistake being made by Herr Hitler will prove to be a very costly mistake.

For it will not be too long until the whole world begins to take notice of the little Movement which started in Moscow, Idaho, twelve years ago. Churches are dying on their feet now. They have none of the light of God in them to keep them alive. All they know is that God was born of a virgin, crucified on a cross and resurrected from the dead two thousand years ago. That, however, is old heathen mythology and bears no relationship whatsoever to the Power of the Living God, which Power it is that will confound Mr. Hitler.

From Oakland, California, on the 27th of May, 1940, we received a wonderful letter from a good Student, Number 28-519. She says:

"I am now on the ninth Lesson and every Lesson reveals more knowledge and far different knowledge than anything I have ever read. At times I cannot grasp it all. It is too deep. But I am going to keep right on and I know since I have been studying with you conditions are improving."

I never like to hear Students say that these Lessons are too deep. The outstanding characteristic of spiritual truth is its simplicity. Any true religion must be so simple that even a child can grasp it. It is because this Teaching is so utterly simple that some Students seem to be confused when they first start to study it. However, as they begin to see the dawning light and as they recognize the Power of God in them, they begin to discover that these simple, plain truths of God are so dynamic that they wonder why they did not see it before. It stands to reason that any true conception of God must be a conception so simple that the Hindu in India, the coolie in China, and the colored man in darkest Africa can easily grasp them. The physical functions of the human body work all alike regardless of race, and the Power of the Spirit of God operates exactly alike in all. The Law is there. We may take it or leave it.

Building a Bridge

"An old man, going a lone highway,
Came at the evening cold and gray
To a chasm vast and deep and wide
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.

The old man crossed in the twilight
dim,

The sullen stream had no fears
him,

But he turned when safe on the other

And built a bridge to span the tide.

'Old man,' said a fellow pilgrim near

'You are wasting strength with building
ing here;

Your journey will end with the evening
ing day;

You never again will pass this way

You have crossed the chasm deep and wide;

Why build this bridge at eventide?

The builder lifted his old gray head

'Good friend, in the path I have chosen
he said,

'There followeth after me today,
A youth whose feet must pass this way;

This chasm that has been naught to
me,

To that fair-haired youth may a path

He, too, must cross in the twilight
dim—

Good friend, I am building the bridge
for him'."

The fact that another, far larger and older religion is an exact counterpart of the story of Jesus Christ, and you have the answer, I believe.

In the Hindoo religion, the second part of the Hindoo trinity was born of a virgin named Maia, which is the equivalent for Mary. And we find that the second part of the Constantine trinity was also born of a virgin called Mary. Strange—but true. Now, in the Hindoo religion, the second part of its trinity was God, and in the religion founded, not by Jesus Christ but by the Roman Emperor Constantine, the second part of its trinity was also the whole trinity—and God. This second part, according to the Hindoo bible, not only was born of a virgin called Mary, but also was crucified on a cross for the sins of the world, both religions strangely teaching that "man was born in sin" and had no possible chance of being "saved" from that sin unless he followed the teachings of the second part of their "god-trinity." By the time the Constantine religion had gotten off to a good start, the problem arose, which of these two religions had the proper conception of God.

In view of the fact that every fundamental of the Christian religion appeared 1,400 years before in the Hindoo religion, if any has the correct theory, it must be the Hindoo and not the Constantinian. That is simple reasoning.

Well, both Chrishna of the Hindoo and Christ of Constantine were crucified on the cross, and, in passing, it is interesting to note that both were born on the same day, December 25, at least according to their respective traditions, be they true or false. Not only did these two "seconds" die on the cross for the sins of the world, but they also both rose from the dead again, after having been buried for three days. They both preached to the "spirits in hell" and, after they were resurrected, both ascended into heaven, where they now sit at the right hand of the other two-thirds of themselves. They both are to come back to the earth again, and this next time, we are told, they will do what they failed to do and bring peace to the earth.

At the birth of both of these "second parts" shepherds and angels heralded their births. Wise men from the East appeared at both conceptions. A star, we are told, guided these wise men at the birth of Christ, and the same star probably guided the wise men who appeared at the time of the birth of Jeseus Chrishna, but one was 1,400 years before the other. Strange indeed—but it is very easy to see where Constantine got the ideas for the religion he founded, which religion is now called the Christian religion. It never was founded by Jesus Christ. It was founded 325 years after the supposed time of Christ, and not by Christ, but by a Roman dictator. These are facts as anyone can prove if he cares to.

In the Hindoo bible, the man saved in the ark was Noe. In the Christian bible, he was Noah. The first man on the earth and the first woman in the Hindoo bible, and 1,400 years before Adam and Eve, were called Adimo and Heva. Now, from where do you think the story of Adam and Eve came?

According to the Hindoo religious tradition of its "crucified" god, Noe had three sons, Sherma, Hama, and Jiapheta. But Noah, of the Christian theory, 1,400 years later, also had three sons called Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Where do you think Constantine got that story? So it goes, and the record is complete. Every fundamental of the Christian religion, which was founded by the Roman Emperor Constantine, was taught by the Hindoo religion 1,400 years before, and the entire Christian structure is an exact counterpart in doctrine of the Hindoo religion. Therefore, if, as is now claimed, the Hindoo story is "pagan," so is the Christian story.

Now let's look at the Christian bible for a few moments, for I want to clear up this entire problem in this article, and then I never want to refer to it again. It is not easy for me to release these facts, because so many people think they are real truths. Many a good soul has gone down to its death, trusting to the limit in the "shed blood of Jesus." Equally as many, probably many more, have gone down to their deaths trusting fully in "the shed blood of Chrishna." These good souls have not known the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God as that Power is being manifested on the earth today; therefore, they missed the beauties of God, because of what their respective systems of religion asked them to believe as being truths of God.

It is time we got at the truth. Under these old pagan philosophies, for that's all they are, this world is on the verge of complete annihilation. The Spirit of God can save it. But the Spirit of God is not in what has been offered to the world by the church; therefore, it is necessary for someone who knows these facts, and is utterly fearless, to bring them to the world. For when the world knows the truth of the falsity of these old religious theories of "crucified gods," then it will discard them. When it discards them, then will it find the shinningly beautiful true Realm of the Spirit of God, which Realm has ever existed, but which has not been shown to mankind because pagan systems of religion have taken the place of the true Spirit of God. It is time, I say, to get at the truth. I shall get there, for the world is rapidly coming to distrust and discard everything the church has ever taught it. That is the best sign that the world is getting ready to universally recognize the Power of the Spirit of God, as this Power is being revealed to the world through this humble Movement here in Moscow, Idaho.

Now back to the Christian bible. There not being any original proofs on which to base a bible, and there being no original manuscripts, it became necessary to have a "bible" for those who followed this new religion fostered and originated by Constantine. Here again, from what I have told you, you will readily see from where the Christian bible came. Containing, as it does, the complete Hindoo story of creation and the "fall of man" and the "crucifixion of god" and the rest of that, it is very plain to surmise from where it came. It was not until the fourth century that certain old "papers" began to mysteriously appear in Catholic hands, and in the hands of those who sought favor with Constantine. Lots of them appeared, and they all were similar in detail of fundamentals to the written "bible" of the Hindoo, which "bible" is today known as the oldest bible in existence. Yet in it, you may find the complete Christian story under another name. Both the same stories—the difference being in the identity of the "crucified god."

The greatest truths are the simplest; and so are the greatest men.—Hare.

Where Christianity Came From

In the fourth century these "copies" and "copies of copies" were first compiled into what was known as the Latin Vulgate bible. Catholic in its entirety, stolen from the Hindoo in its entirety, that old bible ran along until in the 9th century it was changed and called the Anglo-Saxon bible. Then, in the days of Wycliffe, there came another bible called the Wycliffe bible, and in the 16th century there came a whole flock of bibles.

The chart will show them to you. It will also show that there never has existed one scrap of proof of the truth of the story of Jesus Christ told in the Christian bible. Moreover, both of these stories, Christian and Hindoo, cannot be true. The Hindoo having been first, if there is truth in either of the stories, the Hindoo must have it. I could write at length on this subject, but, frankly, I don't like the subject. It has been necessary that we trace the Christian religion and its bible to its proper source. This I have done, but only that men and women may know that the truths of the Living God have never been revealed to this world through anything taught in either Hindoo Christian bibles. The one was copied from the other.

When this fact is universally knowledged and accepted, the world will begin to look for the True God and it won't take very long for them to find that Spirit, for, as the world is beginning to discover, It is operating on earth, in the hearts of men through this "Psychiana" Movement. May God grant that what I have written here may be taken in the spirit in which it has been written and may it be the cause of hundreds of thousands throwing away "pagan superstition, founded by a Roman emperor, and finding in the place of this useless theology—the Power of the Living God.

SPECIAL NOTE

"Psychiana" welcomes those every "faith" to come and partake of this beautiful outpouring of the Spirit of God. It is so utterly unlike anything this world has ever known that once you find the Power of the Spirit of God, your life will be a very happy one. You will wonder why this staggering Power has not been brought to the attention of the world before. We do not know. Nor do we know why God, in His infinite wisdom, chose Dr. Robinson to be the man through whom these precious truths were to be given to the world. We know that God has done just this and we know that as a result of this simple "Psychiana" philosophy, God, men and women by the tens of thousands are finding the actual Power of the Spirit of God in their lives.

We believe that ere long, the world will look upon this Movement and Dr. Robinson as the greatest benefactor this universe has ever seen, for we bring to this sickened and saddened world the picture of God which can heal its ills, is a stupendous thing to do. Yet it is not we who are doing it—it is the Spirit of God. So you, whoever you are, of another "faith" come and find the Power of the Spirit of God, and then when you have found it, go back to yours and bring the good tidings to them.
