LOS ANGELES (UP)

—An attractive 26-year-old mother, believed to have killed her five-year-old daughter 'on command of God,' was brought today by police officers for the child was found slung to death in a dark rest room.

The woman is Mrs. Betty Hardaker, member of a religious cult and present inmate of a San Diego institution for mental cases.

Search for her was started after a housewife found the bruised body of the Geraldine Hardaker sprawled on the women's lavatory of the Monello municipal park.

The young woman's mother, Mrs. A. Karnes, revealed that her daughter who returned home only a month from a sanitarium, was a member of a cult which 'believes in human sacrifice.'

'They think God tells them to kill people,' the grandmother of the slain girl said.

The above news story speaks for itself. Of course, not all church people are as this poor deluded creature was. Thank God for that. The point I desire to make is that this idea of "sacrifice" is at the very foundation of Christian religion, and the whole true story of "god crucified" hang from the pagan idea of "sacrifice" to appease the "wrath of an angry god." Had this story never been stolen from the heathen by the Christians, this world would probably be free from suffering, sin, injustice, war, and the many allied evils which it is prone today. No one can deny the fact that "sacrifice" is the very core of present day theology. Nor can anyone who knows anything about religious history and tradition deny that the idea of "sacrifice" is pagan in its origin. It has no place in any present-day theology; present-day theology is full of it. As long as any pagan idea persists in present-day religions, this world will never find God through them.

The Old Time Religion

The basis of the Christian religion is the "sacrifice" of God Almighty for the "sins" of the world. What a shamefully monstrous doctrine to expect to reveal God to humanity! What supreme blasphemy is that! No wonder this world is in the God-forsaken condition in which it finds itself today, having such a monstrous theory for a religion. Then they tell us that God Almighty was "incarnated" in a man, and that as a man, God Almighty, that Great Spirit of Life, allowed a small handful of Roman soldiers to snuff out His Great Life on a cross of wood. What blasphemy indeed! Count the number of "crucified gods" this world has seen to date, and you will know exactly where that monstrous theory came from. It is pagan and heathen in its entirety.

The incarnation of an infinite God is a shocking absurdity, and an infinite impossibility. We ask in all solemn earnestness, and in the name of the intuitive monitions of an unshackled reason and unbiased conscience, can any man in his sober senses, who has been in the habit of reflecting before he believes, entertain for a moment the monstrous absurdity that the Almighty and Infinite Maker of the universe was once reduced to a little wailing infant, lying in senseless and helpless weakness on the lap of its mother, unable to walk a step, or lisp a word, or do aught but cry with pain or for nourishment stored in the mother's breast? What! Almighty God fallen from His burnished, dazzling throne in the lofty heavens, and reduced to helpless, senseless babyhood! Omnipotence shorn of all power but to breathe, and cry, and smile! What! that Omniscient Being, who "leads one world by day, and ten thousand more by night," becoming suddenly transformed into a human bantling, which knows no higher enjoyment than that of being "pleased with a rattle, and tickled with a straw!" Who can believe it? Aye, who dare believe it, if he would escape the charge of blasphemy? Then say not that "the man Christ Jesus," though standing at the top of the ladder of moral manhood, and high above the common plane of humanity, was yet a God—"the Infinite Ruler of the Infinite universe." Who can believe that that Being, whose existence stretches to an eternity beyond human conception, yea, whom "the heaven of heavens cannot contain," was ever cooped up in a human body, reduced so near to nothing in dimensions as to be susceptible (as was Jesus) of being weighed in scales, and measured with a yardstick?

We ask again, who, from the deepest depths of his inmost, enlightened consciousness, can believe such revolting, such atheistical doctrine as this? Or who will venture to descend still lower, and conceive of an Almighty, Omnipresent Being, who fills all space above, around, and beneath, "from infinity below to yon fixed star above," and millions upon millions of miles beyond it, sinking and dwindling to that mere mite, speck, or monad state and condition comprehended in the initiatory step of embryonic existence? And then think of the Almighty, Omnipotent Creator of the universe lying in a manger with four-footed beasts and creeping things, sleeping with oxen and asses in a stable. Next he is seen an urchin on the street playing with marbles and jack-knives, absorbed and forgetful of the world around him. Who can believe that awfully majestic Being, who is represented by his own inspired book as being so transcendently grand and awe-inspiring that "no

Closer and Closer

CLOSER and closer draws the great day of the coming of the Spirit of God to the earth. The two madmen of Europe wax madder and madder, as the spirit of death and wholesale debauchery which permeates their entire beings releases its fury in a heretofore unknown manner. They call it "a new order in Europe." But this imagined "new order" is based upon bloodshed and rape and colossal murder. It is based upon the ravaging of the countries of others. It is based upon suffering, pestilence, and horror, coupled with human misery. "New orders" are not built upon any such foundations, and whether Hitler and Musso know it, their regime will never come to fruition. They are as surely doomed as if they had never been born.

But the time of their destruction is not quite yet. The submarine, the deadly bomb, the ghastly flame-thrower and the other implements of death still have a short while longer to devour their human prey. Madman Hitler and his partner in crime Mussolini still will make a few more triumphs. Greece is being attacked as I write this. However, let none fail to see the true picture. The record to date for the axis powers is one of defeat. They did not bring the British Empire to its knees, and they never will. Week by week Britain grows stronger, and as we get organized here in the U. S. more and more help will be forthcoming. In Italy and Germany disease, hunger, pestilence have already been felt, and as this winter slides by, these will be multiplied many times. The grim hand of death and destruction is resting upon Hitler-Mussolini, and let me repeat, they will go down to their doom under the terrific Power of the Spirit of God.

When will this be? This all depends upon how soon those who profess to be following the precepts of the Spirit of God throw away their useless idols and accept in their place, the only Power which can do what their idolatrous beliefs and stories cannot do—end this war. The Spirit behind the European madmen is a spirit of evil. It is the spirit of murder, rape, misery, and everything wrong. That is not the predominating spirit of this earth. But it is in control now, and it will stay in control until another, and far greater Spirit brings it to its knees by the Power of superior Spiritual might. But how is such a Power to be brought to earth? In the first place—does such a Spiritual Power exist? I believe it does. I know it does, because it manifests in individual lives. It therefore, must exist.

I think every sane and right thinking man and woman will agree that the Power of the Invisible Spirit of God exists. The question then, is—where is this Spirit to be found? Is there any organization on the face of the earth which knows anything at all about this Spirit? There is one. And only one. Let us look at those who say they represent Almighty God on the earth. They call themselves "church organizations," and they are legion. They are immense institutions having a total membership of many millions here in the United States. Yet we all know that there is absolutely nothing in their actions, their philosophies, or their theories which has ever been able to manifest any of the Power of God on this earth. This is because they all worship a dead god. They all confine their activities with "the soul." They are more interested in what happens to a dead body than they are to a living body.

Recently, and against my better judgment, I attended a Catholic funeral, and to me it was the most idolatrous, ghastly thing I have ever seen. Candles. Priests, making weird movements over a dead body. Idolatry one hundred per cent. Yet all the present-day church is interested in is dead bodies. What really matters is the Spirit of Life, or the Spirit of God which inhabits those bodies before death. But no church seems to know anything about that. The time the church steps into the picture is at death. Then it says a few prayers, chants a few masses, makes a few passes at "God," and then tells the gullible relatives that through offices of the church, the departed O. K. For these churches claim themselves the right to "save soul." Now I respect them for what they are. But I must repeat the statement I have made so many times over the past twelve years. I must, you must brand the whole thing as one hundred per cent idolatry and pagan superstition. The complete story that Almighty was crucified on a cross in the name of Jesus Christ, or Christna, or any one of other 35 "crucified gods" of antiquity, is not true.

This is the lesson this world, especially the churches have to learn. This is the true vision of God which was given to me many years ago. This is the Great Revelation which the whole world must learn before the madmen of Europe and Asia are brought to their knees. You know and I know, that there is not the slightest chance of the story of Jesus Christ or Christna or any other crucified god saving this world by ending it of dictators. There has never been the slightest evidence of Spiritual Power in anything the churches teach. They are good in their way. They keep people from going to worse places. But their story of God crucified, is not, cannot be true. There are many reasons for this. The most evident reason is the existence on the earth of two madmen who, for sheer ruthlessness know anything this world has ever seen. I say that such men as these could not possibly manifest on the earth the Power of the ever-existent Spirit of God were known by any religious organization.

I say further that nothing, absolutely nothing in the story of

Questions and Answers

Q: Are not your affirmation and your blitzkrieg button against Hitler the wrong philosophy? Are you not employing hate instead of love?

A: I don't think so. I don't believe Hitler knows the meaning of the word love. There is no hate in my make-up against anyone. This Hitler is the incarnation of everything mad. Murder, rape, intense madness. That's Hitler. So dangerous is that man that it will take the actual and literal Power of the Spirit of God to stop him. My methods are O.K. You will notice that he is being defeated just the same. He cannot conquer England. No—my methods are right and proper, and these methods, continued, will bring his downfall where nothing else could. Keep your affirmation going steadily and get as many more as you can to join with you.

Q: Will not Jesus come back to the earth again soon? My pastor says He undoubtedly will.

A: Your pastor is mistaken. What is alluded to as the "second coming of the Lord" will be a revival of Spiritual Power or a demonstration of Spiritual Power. This Movement is the real coming of the Spirit of God to the earth.

Q: From Mrs. Josephine Scott of Huntington Park, Los Angeles, one of our very first Students eleven years ago and still a fine friend, comes the following question sent in by airmail. I am glad Mrs. Scott asked that question, for it has not been raised before, and I was waiting for someone to ask it. She says: "Would not an affirmation of love be better for Hitler than the one you are using? Does not the one you are using show hate?"

A: No Mrs. Scott, I do not believe an affirmation of love for Hitler would be anywhere near as effective as the one I am now having hundreds of thousands of people use. I do not hate Hitler. I pity him. I hate the bloody murders he is committing, and I find it hard not to hate him, but one in tune with the Infinite is above hating anyone. This man does not know what love means. He is mentally unbalanced. Moreover, he is dangerous to the world while alive. He is the incarnation of every base, vile, inhuman instinct, and under the rule of such a being as he, life for none of us would be worth living. The affirmation so many people are using against him is in order. Nothing but the Power of the Spirit of God can down that man, and I may say to you all now, that the end of Hitler and what he stands for is in sight. Remember it was a snowflake that beat Napoleon. I believe the morale and the utter fearlessness of the British is directly due to the waves of Spiritual Power being used as a result of our affirmation. Let none be mistaken, this Hitler cannot stand the Spiritual force we are throwing against him. Our Power is the Spirit of God, while his is the flame-thrower, the bomb, the tank, etc. He forgets that the Maker of all things is using His great Power through the "PSYCHIANA" Movement and therefore Hitler is doomed. Mussolini also is doomed. Keep the affirmation going, and call your groups together, and let's down Hitler as soon as possible, not through any power we possess, but through a concentration of the Power of the Spirit of God against Mr. Hitler. It is a pity we have to use such a staggering Power, but there can be no safety for the world unless we down him by "the sword of the Spirit." Have no hesitations about using this affirmation against him with full force. You still owe me some gasoline Mrs. Scott—remember?

Q: Is not Hitler a child of God? Why do you try to overthrow a fellow human being?

A: No. He is a child of the devil. The question above answers your question quite fully. Watch him go down to his doom before the victorious Allies plus the Power of the Spirit of God.

Q: How many people are with you in using the affirmations against Hitler?

A: I have no way of knowing. Judging by the signatures in our headquarters I should say over 100,000 and perhaps twice that number.

Q: What do you think of Henry Ford's offer to build 1000 planes daily?

A: I believe this question has been answered in this column before. If it has not, let me say that if I were President, I would have given him an order for 100,000 planes the day after his offer had been made known. If Mr. Ford says he can build 1000 planes daily, he can.

Q: How can a person know God and be religious without anything to worship? According to you, one cannot have a personal God, and I don't believe there can be any religion without one.

A: When you know the Spirit of God in you, you will find that Spirit is quite personal enough for you. God at no time asks anyone to "worship" him. That is not the reason for the existence of God. God is the Great Creative Spirit which made this universe, and you. God exists as a living invisible Spirit of Power, Peace, Joy, Happiness and everything that is good. Any attempt to embody the Deity in a human form is useless. That may have been necessary in the dark ages, but Americans today are quite capable of recognizing a Supreme Spirit, and they are much too intelligent to believe any "crucifixion of God" stories. Please get away from the "worship" idea. That is paganism. All God asks of you is that use of the Power which dwells in you to the very full, recognizing that Power to be the Spirit which is God. You can safely forget all "worship." Let the heathen do the worshipping.

Hearken at the break of dawn,
A bird's clear call, night's curtain drawn.

Oh, the beauty of it all,
A woodland morning in the fall.

The pastor of a very poor church, who wished to procure new hymn books but who found his congregation without the means to buy them, considered himself very lucky when the proprietor of a patent medicine offered to give the books provided he should be allowed the privilege of inserting his advertisement therein. The preacher very gladly consented. The books, upon their arrival, were examined carefully by him, but he could not find the expected ad. This was indeed very charitable of the donor, and on presenting them on Easter morning, he announced the hymn on page 35. One glance at the page revealed the cause of the smile which went around through the congregation. The hymn read as follows:

"Hark, the herald angels sing!
Johnson's pills are just the thing;
Peace on earth, and mercy mild;
Two for man and one for child."

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals.
We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace.
To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

man can see him and live" (Ex. xxxiii, 20), was not only daily seen by hundreds and thousands, but was on such familiar terms with men, that they regarded him as their companion, and equal, and even sometimes coolly reprimanded him for supposed misdemeanors and errors? Could they believe this to be Almighty God? Impossible! Impossible! And then who can believe that that infinite Being, whom we have been taught to regard as absolutely and eternally unchangeable, could become subject to hunger and thirst (as did Jesus)? Or who can believe that the eternally and unceasingly watchful Omnipotent Deity, whose eye, we are told, "never slumbers," could sink into unconscious sleep, become "to dumb forgetfulness a prey," night after night, for thirty years, oblivious, and unconscious of the world around him? Think of a being of incomprehensible majesty, dignity, and power, able to "shake the heavens and the earth also," being unable to protect himself from insult, and was therefore derided and "spit upon," and finally overcome by his enemies, as is related of Jesus.

Can any man believe, who has not made shipwreck of his senses, or banished Reason from her courts, that God Almighty, who comprehends in himself the most absolute and boundless perfection of goodness and wisdom, was tempted by demons, devils, and crawling serpents? Who can believe that the Lord, who owns "the cattle upon a thousand hills" (Psalm i. 10), and the countless hosts of worlds besides, that wheel their course through infinite space, had not "where to lay his head"? Who can believe that that was the all-wise, omnipotent, and omnipresent God, possessing all power in heaven above and the earth beneath, who was betrayed by weak, finite mortals? What! the Almighty Creator betrayed by a puny being of his own creation into the hands of his disobedient and rebellious children? Why could he not, if possessing "power to lay down his life, and take it up again" (John x. 17), cause that all these children of his (as we must assume they were, if he was Almighty God, and hence the Father of all) should love him, instead of hating him? Can any man believe that Jesus was possessed with omnipotent power while standing to be whipped (scourged) by Pontius Pilate, or that he possessed a power above that of finite mortals while in the act of praying, with such extreme ardor that the sweat dropped from his face, that the cup of death might pass from his lips, or while calling for an angel to support him in the hour of his mortal dissolution? or that He, "by whom all things exist," could cease himself to exist, by dying upon the cross between malefactors? Think of this, reader, and think of the eternal Creator, the infinite Deity, the omnipotent Jehovah, the Maker of worlds as numberless as the sands upon the sea-shore for multitude, fainting, bleeding, dying, and pouring out his own blood to appease his own wrath; dying an ignominious death to satisfy an implacable revenge! Away with such insulting mockery, such blasphemous humbuggery! It can only find place in the dark chambers of an unenlightened mind.

God and You

There is an experience which all of our Students should find. Most of them do. That experience is one which, when fully attained, actually and literally places at the disposal of each of us, all the Power of the Great Spirit—God. God is the Creator of all life, all power, all peace, in fact, nothing can exist without God. The trees manifest life through the Spirit of God. The two canaries and the dozen goldfish in my bowl manifest life because God, the Spirit of all life, actually exists in them. The life of the trees is, in essence, part of the Great Whole of God. So is the life in the canaries and the goldfish. The physical manifestation of a tree is such that it stays stationary, its sole object being to beautify the earth and to reproduce its own kind through its seed. All of the creations of God do that.

The canaries are much more of the life of God than are the trees, and the goldfish—they too have a state and quality of life which makes them capable of moving around. They cannot speak, so far as we know, but they can and do evidence intelligent life. The sweet singing birds in my home—they cannot speak the human language, but they can sing a beautiful song, and God is in that song. God is the invisible Spirit of Life and Power which is the originating force behind that song. Nothing can exist without God being actually in—that is, nothing that has life.

You are the greatest manifestation to date of life, therefore, of God. You are human life. You can talk, you can think, and you can direct your own activities in whatever channel you choose to. In fact, you are the only form of life which is capable of recognizing the fact that you had a creator. You are the only form of life through which the Power of this Creator can consciously exist. I said consciously exist. You are, therefore, a direct part of that Spirit of all creation, and you have then, at your daily and hourly disposal, all the Powers of the Creator of this universe. The trees have this power, too, but their physical form is such that they do not, cannot understand this relationship. Therefore, automatically they just live and grow, and, sooner or later they die. So do you. But you won't when you progress to the place where you fully recognize the actual existence of God in you.

Now there are great possibilities wrapped up in this innate Power which is yours. But these possibilities are not for you unless you recognize the existence of this Power in you. It is absolutely foolish for any to teach that God, through Jesus Christ, lives above the sky, and only at death can you know God. That is tommy-rot. Any theory of religion which teaches that God was ever separated from man is utterly false. Moreover, such theories must die by the weight of their own error. This they are doing very fast these days, and this was only to be expected. The human race has progressed to the place of spiritual growth where such theories fail to satisfy. They fail to satisfy because they fail to reveal God. And any theory of God which fails to reveal God in all that remarkable Power to human souls, is not a true theory regardless of how long it has been taught and regardless of who teaches it. This world is in the ghastly condition in which we find it, not because men and women will not accept God, but because God has never been truly presented to anyone by any religious organization.

In this fact lies the magnitude of my work here in Moscow, Idaho. For, replacing the "crucified god" theory, we are coming to the world with an inspired vision direct from the Spirit of God. This vision is the only true vision of God ever to be presented to the world, and the reason the whole world may know the vision is true is because the Power of the Great Spirit, God, is absolutely and actually manifested in human lives as a result of this remarkable new vision, and true vision of God. Anyone knows that if the actual truths and Power of the Creator God had ever been brought to this world, it could not possibly be in the mad, God-forsaken condition it's in today. The fact that world conditions are as bad as they are is ample proof that the slightest thing about God has never yet been brought to the earth by any institution which specializes in their respective "gods." One organization, regardless of however small it may be, can bring to this earth, if it has the true vision, enough of the actual Power of God to remake it, redeem it, and save it once and for all.

If God were known on this earth, it would bloom and blossom as a rose. All men, and all nations would live together in peace, and we should all shout for joy at the happiness which the presence and power of God brings with it. This we of "Psychiana" shall eventually do. We have not scratched the surface yet, although many think we have made remarkable strides. But this Movement has not even gotten away to a good start yet. As soon as sufficient money is made available by my Students, then the real world-wide work of "Psychiana" will really begin. And when it does begin it will sweep the earth by its Power, which, of course, is the Power of the Spirit of God. We have seen to date what one man can do through this divine Power, and before we are done, we shall see much more.

What will happen is this. Just as soon as we are in a strong financial condition, say, with $100,000 in the bank, you will see full-page advertisements appear in all the leading daily newspapers of the United States. Then, I shall appear personally in the largest auditoriums in the land, with my message, and the Power of the Spirit of God, sweeping through me, will bring to men and women for the first time in their lives, the actual liberating truths of God, plus the Power of God which always accompanies the real truths of God. This world is ripe for those truths. When Americans throw away pagan superstition which has been masquerading as of God, and when the plain simple fact of the existence of God in us begins to be nationally and internationally known, don't you see, we can then unitedly throw the actual Spirit of God against these European madmen, and an era of peace such as the world has never seen will follow their downfall. One thing is certain. Even if enough naval and military power could be amassed by this country and Great Britain,

In answer to the call within his soul.
As he ascends the mystic mountain

And looks into the valley far below,
He hears the God-within, in silence

In accents tender, soft, and low!
"As you aspired to reach these realms

As you willed over every obstacle to You missed the plains—now you

For herein lies the path—"The Mid-

The plane of contact with your im-Unceasingly, you must work and For here you learn to master, and Look within, and find the humble

Your greatest victory lies in your and if Hitler and Mussolini could be beaten that way, well that wouldn't mean a thing so far as permanent peace is concerned. No one would scrap the battleships after the defeat of these two blots on civilization.

A rule of peace will only exist on this earth when God is known as the greatest living Power a human life can know. God in the sky is no good to this earth. God killed on a cross as Jesus Christ or Chrishna, or as any other of the 50 killed "gods" this world has known, these are no good to this earth. There is just one thing which can bring permanent peace to humanity, and that one thing is the Spirit of God. This Spirit, neither the world nor the church knows anything about. But in the new day which "Psychiana" will bring in through the Spirit of God, there will be no need for these pagan stories of "crucified gods." For God—the Great Spirit—God, will be recognized for what It is, namely, the cause of all life, the Power which sustains all life, and the Power which can bring Its own fullness consciously into every human life. That consciousness of God this world knows little of. It has never been taught to the world.
But in the new days, "childish things will be put away" and in their place will come a conception of God from which no man need hide. The greatest living men through the ages have been men who were very close to the Spirit of God. They recognized that Spirit in their everyday lives. They did not "look away to Calvary" or to any other place of crucifixion. They know God, and they still know God in their own lives. For it is out of the life which knows God that the final and total redemption of this earth shall come, and that redemption can come very fast if I can only secure sufficient help from my Students to bring this message to the world.

Believe me, the world is ready for it. It is hungry for it. It is dying for it. And this simple man in Moscow, Idaho, taken from the Corner Drug Store, is the man through whom this revelation of the truths of God are to be brought to the world. If you realized that to the full would you not take your part in helping bring this staggering revival of Spiritual Power to the earth? Of course you would. Let me assure you that the only thing which is keeping me from starting out now is the fact that it will entail the expenditure hundreds of thousands of dollars, and I don't have that much money. After this Movement has begun to sweep this land, money will be given to me faster than I can use it. I shall need it then, but I do need it now.

Let me repeat—not for me or for any other individual. This corporation pays my salary and that's all I need. But to bring into existence this Movement for God and humanity is staggering as this Movement will begin to will, on the start, take much money.
So I do the only thing I can do, and that is to ask my Students and friends to make a bit of a sacrifice in the very human cause. And I believe you will.

God and you. Remember this—God is expecting every one of you to take your stand and do your part to help me bring to the world the priceless treasures of the golden storehouse of God. Those treasures can bring peace to humanity. They can stop this war.
They can reveal the Spirit of God to man, and that's all man has ever needed—just the plain simple truth of God without any church decorations added to them. Will you, if you have not, send us now whatever financial assistance you can send? I think many of you could send a substantial check. But no matter what you can send, won't you send it now?
Thank you.

Amicitia

If I had never met you, friend mine,
My book of life would tell another tale,
My cup of joy would hold a million wine Than that we shared together. If fail
To meet again along life's changing trail,
My heart in benison will melody
A hymn to you in friendship's melody! —Beth Conl

crucified god" has the slightest bearing upon the facts of God as those facts exist. These church teachings are only a remnant of old so-called religious theories and myths, known millions thousands of years before Jesus Christ or the Christian religion were ever heard of. Every fundamental of the Christian faith came from old religions (?) which must be pagan, for they existed long before either Krishna of the Hindoo Christ of the Christian were ever known of. Let's not get all riled up here. Let's look the facts in the face, shall we? If the story the Christian church tells the world is not true, could not the world be told what the truth is? There are only a very few million in this country who ever go to church. Many more millions, in fact the great percentage of Americans are not in the slightest degree interested in anything any church has to say. They know the story. They have heard all the church claims. But they are not interested. These are the millions I am after. I should like to bring the actual truths of God to the churches too. But I am getting much further it seems by appealing to those god Americans who are a bit too smart to believe that the Great Spirit of all Creation was killed on a cross some 2000 years ago. Once more, with a earnest, anguished heart, let me repeat the statement that nothing any church today teaches is of God. It is all pagan myth and superstition, and was all known thousands of years before Christianity was ever heard of. Please read "Gleams Over the Horizon."

Now to come back to this ghastly eruption of world madness. What can be done about it? In the first place, it is necessary for us all to realize that this ungodly condition exists only because the truths of God have not been brought to the world by any religious organization. This condition exists in spite of the fact that churches tell us that Almighty God founded them, and lives in them. We know that is not true, yet that is what they claim. Now then, if this world condition exists because men and women do not know who or what God is, is it not logical to know that the true knowledge of God is the only thing that can bring peace to this earth? We are telling the world that the actual truths of God have not ever been brought to it by any system of theology. We are saying further that until such truths are brought to mankind, these dictators will continue to advance their respective spheres of authority, and, unless the Spirit of God steps into the picture very soon, our own American freedom may be jeopardized.

Certainly we have nowhere else to look for help. And just as certainly it will take the Power of God to upset the powers of evil. Yet we know that the actual and literal Power of the Spirit of God is an unknown quantity on this earth, outside of the "Psychiana" Movement. We might just as well look facts in the face, for Truth is the only liberator. Churches get so mad at me it's pitiable. Yet these very churches who condemn me so bitterly are the very ones I am trying to help. They are the very organizations which have brought the world to its present chaos, by telling men and women a story of God Almighty which is not true. Until the actual Truths of God are made known to mankind, this world can never be brought to a peaceful day. These madmen, obsessed by the idea that might makes right, will continue to gain until the day comes when the Spirit of God, manifesting through human beings like you and me, proves to the world that the Spirit of Right is far more potent than the spirit of might.

But instead of our churches bringing to the world the actual Truths of God, they come along with an old story which was known to every large pagan system of religion away back in the dark ages. No wonder this world has retrogressed under such conceptions of God. I care not what the churches think of me. All I care about is the fact that I have been given the true vision of God, and my life's work is to bring that vision, with the Power which accompanies it, to the human race. This is a superhuman job. But, through the Power of the Spirit of God in me, do you not see that there lies the superhuman power by which this superhuman work will be done? Of course you do.

Hundreds of thousands all over America are actually and literally throwing the invisible Power of the Spirit of God against these madmen, and already the result is being seen. The dictators are failing. They cannot win. But what I am concerned about is that all men and women may know the Power of the Spirit of God actually living in them.

So continue, beloved, with your affirmations. They are potent. Give whatever money you can give to this Movement. It will finally be recognized for what it is, at some future time, and then, when the fullness of the Power of the True God is known, war will be no more. This conception of God must come. It will come, and it will come soon. Will you help me bring in that Great Day of God? Thank you. Do it not for me, but for yourself and a dying, suffering, mad humanity, made mad because it knows not God.

"Yes," replied the farmer, "when a farmer is supposed to know the botanical name of what he's raisin', the zoological name of the insect that eats it, and the chemical name of what will kill it, somebody's got to pay."

"YE MEN OF ATHENS"

Dr. Robinson's most recent book is now off the press. Perhaps the most helpful book Dr. Robinson has written.

The Danger Grows

The dangers of feudalism and totalitarianism daily grow. What the future will bring we cannot know. But we do know that the madman of Europe has sufficient arms and ammunition to blast a good part of the human race into eternity. I don't know just how long ago it was, but I wrote an article stating that God would effectively bring such tyrants to their knees. I stated that an earthquake would wreck their plans. It's interesting to note that the earthquake in Rumania recently left half the oilfields ablaze. The bridges over which the nasty hordes were to pass were demolished. Italy has been a pitiable object so far in the war, and I'm of the opinion that the Italian people, and probably old Musso himself wish they had never entered this conflict.

It cannot last, my friends. It's essentially wrong, and Right, or God, still is a greater factor in humanity than wrong. This is the assurance I have of the ultimate downfall of these would-be world rulers. Recently Adolf said: "I am the hardest and the strongest man Germany has had in many hundreds of years—also, I have more power." That poor fool could not take another breath if the Spirit of God were withdrawn from him. Yet he actually believes that he is superior to God. He said the other day that democracy hoped to win by the "prayer-book." Well, democracy may not win by the prayer-book, because all prayer-books are man or church-made; but democracy will win through the Power of the Spirit of God, and that's something Adolf knows nothing about.

Think of a so-called leader frequenting a beer hall. I tell you, the defeat of such men and the doctrines they stand for is surer today than it ever was. Ever since the "Psychiana" Spiritual Blitzkrieg came into being, it has been one defeat after another for the axis powers. I do not say they are licked yet—but I do say they are doomed as surely as I write this to you. They are doomed because they are opposed to God, and nothing, and no one, opposed to God can ever succeed. What I am interested in, though, is the world after this holocaust. It will be an entirely different world from anything we have either known or heard of. There will be no more war. There will be no more poverty. There will be no more death. Neither will there be any more crying or pain. For the Spirit of God shall live among men on the earth, in the midst of them.

This Spirit is doing that now, only men will not recognize that fact. Religion, or the worship of God today has become a formalistic, cold, God-forsaken sort of business which has a show of religion and spirituality which has no power whatsoever. The outside of the cup is clean, but inside it is full of filth. A book was written some years ago and called "The Inside of the Cup." Better get that book and read it. The inside of the cup. That's what should interest us. For where there is no Power, there is no God. Where there is Power, there is God. I have been in Seattle for the past week, working on two full-page announcements which will shortly break. The first one will break in the Washington, D. C., Times-Herald, and the second will probably break in Detroit, Michigan. I was able to run a full-page in the Chicago Herald Examiner just a few days ago, and the Portland Oregonian has one scheduled soon.

These announcements of mine are very compelling. They attract the people. As a result of them, men and women come to us and find a new conception of God. This is what we want. I only wish we were in a position to insert a full-page in every large newspaper in the United States. Boy, we sure could go places for God then. I'm hoping that someone who has plenty of money will soon hear of this Movement and give us all the money we need. In the meantime, my Students will most assuredly stand behind me, and this, coupled with the Power of the Infinite Spirit of God, will, sooner or later, bring me the necessary funds. I suppose I could go out and solicit them, but I'm not going to do that. The way is open for this Movement to bring the Spirit of God to the world, and the money will come. In the meantime, keep your "blitzkrieg" affirmation going everyday, and if you have surplus funds please send them to me. Remember there is no one connected with this Movement who draws one cent in either dividends or profits. It all goes into this work for God and humanity.

Hills

I never loved your plains!

Your gentle valleys,
Your drowsy country lanes
And pleached alleys.

I want my hills!—the trail
That scorns the hollow.

Up, up the rugged shale
Where few will follow.

Up, over wooded crest
And mossy boulder,
With strong thigh, heaving chest,
And swinging shoulder,

So let me hold my way,
By nothing halted,
Until, at close of day,
I stand, exalted,

High on my hills of dream—
Dear hills that know me!
And then how fair will seem
The lands below me!

How pure, at vesper time,
The far bells chiming!
God, give me hills to climb,
And strength for climbing!
