

THE LARGER PRAYER

May

"At first I prayed for light;
Could I but see the way,
How gladly, swiftly, would I walk
To everlasting day!

"And next I prayed for strength;
That I might tread the road
With firm, unfalt'ring feet, and win
The heaven's serene abode.

"And then I asked for faith;
Could I but trust my God,
I'd live infolded in His peace,
Though foes were all abroad.

"But now I pray for love;
Deep love to God and man;
A living love that will not fail,
However dark His plan.

"And light and strength and faith
Are opening everywhere!
God waited patiently until
I prayed the larger prayer."

Oftentimes we miss the real significance of true prayer by considering only our own selfish desires & wishes. Let every student of "PSYCHIANA" breathe "THE LARGER PRAYER", which is always for "the other fellow"
