To All Enquirers

POWER—dynamic, pulsing, surging POWER. That is the message of “Psychiana” to you. From the dawn of civilization—down through the weary ages of advance, the questing, eager face of mankind has turned again and again to the light. Up to the limitless stars—always in search of some mighty power which could enrich and sustain life. How sure this instinct is, you will learn as the dynamic Power of the God-Realm unfolds itself to you.

For out of the chasm of the void has come the surging strength of the new conception of the God-Realm. A message of peace, happiness and abundance of material and spiritual blessings—it brings to us. Time after ageless time, the constellations have wheeled in their orbits, and always the mighty power of the God-Law has been present, ready and willing to supply mankind with all that the heart holds dear—BUT THE WAY HAD NOT BEEN OPENED.

BUT THE WAY IS OPEN NOW, for, as an army terrible with banners, sweeping before it the black shades of night, routing despair, comes the flaming truth of the God-Law. Your fate is in your own hands now. At last the way is open if you will but take it. It doesn't matter what your condition—how much you have, how much you know—the same pulsing, surging Power that was unleashed when we first saw the Power of the God-Law, can enter YOUR life and YOUR spirit, and make you whatever you want to become.

Are you poor? The irresistible Power of the God-Law can give you an abundance of material possessions. Are you unhappy? There is a great peace in “Psychiana.” Does the way seem confused?—does life seem to withhold its secrets?—through the power of the Cosmic Forces man can now talk with God.

Read this message. In a few days will come to you the 6000-word treatise promised you. When you receive it—READ IT CAREFULLY, for it points the way to the Power “Psychiana” teaches. The same dynamic Power which spins the stars in their orbits, and wheels the galaxies into the birth of new worlds. With it you can do what you will.
