DANCING FLASHES OF POWER

Deep down at the very core of your nature, so deep it is almost unrecognizable, lies the intuition that you should be and can be able to find and use dancing flashes of limitless God-Power.

You know as well as I know that you were not meant to eke out a miserable existence; nor did the great Creative Intelligence behind the universe, with its superlative wisdom, ever design man to be a negative, inferior, quaking individual, trembling like an aspen leaf and living in fear of some intangible something which keeps its heel on his neck and says, "You never can accomplish anything."

Like the restless tides of the ocean comes surging through your very being, like the last faint echo born of a great cry, the fact that you MAY and CAN be what you will be through the matchless, dynamic Power of the invisible God-Law which created you in the first place, and which moment by moment gives you of its invisible life. Have you felt somewhat like the helpless animal being driven to slaughter? Do you now feel that you were pre-ordained and predestined to live out your weak existence on this earth while all around you others enjoy the goods things of life? If that is your picture, it can change like a chameleon; and instead of your life being an empty, discouraged, disconsolate thing, it can be as beautiful as apple blossoms in an orchard.

So, cling with all the tenacity you can muster to that small voice which tells you that an overflowing fountain of boundless energy may be found and used by you. and that the fetters which have bound you to poverty, ill health, and weariness may all disappear through the pulsing, surging, dynamic Power of the great God-Law. Certainly I am doing everything in my power to bring this great Power to your attention. Will you do your small part?

Most cordially yours,

Frank B. Robinson
