

TAPE METERSUMMARY OF CONTENTS

- 616 Interview begins. Narrator is a sophomore at Lewis and Clark College. in Lewiston, Idaho. Feelings about rural life. Narrator feels the same as her mother, Irma Eglund; although there are disadvantages, farm is a good place to raise children. Narrator does not feel isolated living in the country, has her own car and does pretty much what she wants. Narrator is still close to her parents. Works for father in the summer, works odd jobs while at college. She lives in the only women's hall on campus. This summer, she may stay on campus and work as a janitor.
- 648 When ~~working~~ doing farm work at home, narrator drives truck. ~~Not~~ She notes that she can ~~work~~ lift hay bales, but goes too slowly because she is a woman, so she drives the truck. Childhood chores. Feels there was no difference between the ~~w~~ chores she and her brothers had to do. However, she notes that haying was virtually the only outside work she did. Also comments about how girls have to clean house and boys have to clean ~~horses~~ the barn.
- 667 Plans for the future. If she marries and has children, narrator wants to raise family the same way she was raised. No definite ~~goals for~~ career plans. Would like to marry eventually.
- 686 Entertainment at college. Drinking beer with girlfriends on weekends, movies, ~~basketball games~~ attending basketball games. She loves to watch basketball and would play herself, but not much opportunity for that on campus. Narrator answers repeated questions about the differences ~~in~~ between girls' and boys' sports--the opportunities and participation in school.
- 716 ~~Wants to~~ Career plans. During high school she wanted to be a teacher because she loves young children. Now, she is not sure; does not like the classes she is required to take in order to be a teacher. No definite plans for future career yet. Very little career ~~guidance in~~ from high school and college. Notes she is very poor in math.
- 778 Reads the same newspapers and magazines as family, plus a few other things. Does not read too much anyway, not any books. Narrator spends many weekends at home on the farm; not much to do on campus over the weekends, besides, food at home is much better than food on campus. The dormitory she lives in is mainly occupied by nursing students. (Notes that )
- 801 She is thinking of switching into VoTech at college, in order to learn typing and/or some other employable skill. 6
- 814 Does not watch much TV on campus, although many other women there do. About 56 women living in the residence hall.
- 831 Would like to marry eventually. Ideal husband: tall like her brothers (Hollis is 5' 10") and kind like her father. ~~Husband needs to support the family~~ Future husband should support the family; Comments that she would work at an outside job if she had to, but would rather stay at home and raise ~~the~~ children just like her own mother did. Narrator feels that women should have equal decision making power in the family, that women have the right to say what they feel.

- 862 Narrator feels she has about the same, or a little more, opportunities as her mother did. ~~Does not~~ Has not thought too much about ~~in~~ the women's movement, does not care about it. ~~Does not have much contact with~~ ~~Comments~~ She comments that no one in the women's hall is very interested in the women's movement.
- 894 Interviewer talks to Hollis' mother, Irma Eglund (who is present throughout the interview) about the relationship of women in Genesee to the women at the University of Idaho.
- 939 Narrator chose to go to Lewis and Clark College in Lewiston, rather than U of I in Moscow because Lewis and Clark is smaller school, friendlier, less expensive, and easier classes.
- 985 Narrator would like to live in the same area she grew up. ~~in~~ Is very satisfied with rural life and small town.
- 997 End of interview.
