

JOAN DORENDORF

Minute	TOPIC
33	Beginning of interview
34	General Information - page one and two of personal data record. Side Two
0.1	Continuation from side one
01	Teaching public school for retarded children - special education
03	Coping with work and home life (children)
3.5	Feelings now that family is grown and no longer need her.
5.5	Hobbies, interest and talents.
6.5	Clubs and Church activities
07	Special Olympics
10	Hobbies
12	Advantage of living in a rural area
13	Life of rural women compared with urban women
14	Family life now compared to when she was a child
15	Financial situation in family then as compared to now
15	Free time then and now
16	Some things that she and her brothers and sisters did for recreation
16.9	How long she knew her husband before marriage
17	Reason for marriage
17	Expectations before marriage
18	Childbirth; medical services and facilities when she had her children
18.9	Why she had the number of children she did.
19	Knowledge about birth and child-rearing
20	What she sees as the future for children - what the children are doing now.
21	How role of children has changed since she had hers.

Joan Dorendorf cont.

Minute	TOPIC
22	What the family does for recreation
23	What she did to support the family
23.8	How things she does now compare to 30 years ago
24	Having major responsibilities
24	What she would do if something happen to her husband
24	Displaying things in the County Fair - 4-H fairs in Moscow
24	Growing season - her garden
25	Suggestion to prepare young women for farm life
26	Magazines that the family subscribes to and the newspaper
26	T.V. programs she most enjoys
26	Most common things she and her husband talk about
26	Decision to live where they live
27	Discussion on mine pollution - smelter
30	Mine explosion and it's effect on community
	END