

BRENDA FAY LEWIS

Minute	TOPIC
22	General Information
25	Mother working
25	Family information ; father's occupations
27	Information about husband
27	Marriage
27	How her children get along
28	Husband's occupations
29	Why they moved from California to where they live now
31	Working with husband
32	Children's names and birthdates
33	Education
34	Skills - in home and out
36	How children have changed since coming to Idaho
36	Religion
39	Groups, clubs and societies
39	Hobbies and talents
39	Favorite song of her husband and herself when they were courting
	Side Two
1.7	Advantages and disadvantages of living in an urban area or rural area
3.4	Comparison between life of an urban woman and a rural woman
6.7	Family and life today compared to when she was a child
7.4	Position of children in family ; family decision making
8.3	Comparing her position and her mother's position
9.9	Contribution of rural women to community
12	Recreation and leisure time
12.9	Magazines and newspapers
13.5	Television programs she likes

Brenda Lewis cont.

Minute	TOPIC
14	Most frequent things her husband asks her about
15	What would happen if she was left alone
16	Expectations of marriage ; before and now
18	How she will feel when children leave home
19	Trust in children
19	Future for boys
20	How she feels about the idea that marriage is a dying institution
21	How she would accept the fact that her son was living with a woman
21	Talking to boys about sex
22	Boys being exposed to a sex oriented society
22	Sex education in school : How she reacted to it
24	Feelings on her identity - does she have a separate identity from husband
25	Advice to a woman moving to a rural area from an urban area
26	Keeping in touch with friends from California
26	Difference of lifestyles putting strain on friendship
	END