

MYRA STARK

Minute	TOPIC
03	General Information
14	Feelings about working
14	Hobbies - recreation
16	Honors, Awards, Medals
16	Clubs, Groups and Societies
17	Traveling extent
18	Marriage now and past marriages
18	Childhood view of marriage
19	Expectations of marriage before and now
20	Decision for divorce
21	How she met her current husband Martin - what they did for recreation
25	Recreation with family
25	Recreation when she was a child
26	Winter Recreation when a child and now
27	Reason for working full-time in the past - reason for quitting
28	Job at the canery - reason for job and reason for
29	Selling Tupperware ^B
30	What she sees as the future for her children - education ; job
31	Daughter belonging to groups in school
31	Going to college (back to school)
32	Having children of their own- with present husband
32	Education on childbirth - prenatal classes
33	Experience of going thru childbirth
34	Types of occupations of her previous husbands
35	Hazards of her present husband's job
36	Number of years living in Kellogg

Myra Stark Cont.

Minute	TOPIC
36	Effect of WWII on her life
37	Father being in the service - his being away from home and it's effect on the family
37	Brother enlisting in the Korean War
38	View of her children going to war
38	View on Vietnam War
38.5	Parents expectations of her further education
38.7	Reaction of her friends to her being pregnant without a husband
39	Knowledge of birth control
39	Thoughts on how she would react if daughter was pregnant out of wedlock
39.7	Making decisions involving children
39.8	Children's part in family decisions
40	Husband's job change decision
40.4	Canning food
	Side Two
01	Hobbies
02	Mechanical aptitude of Myra
04	View on Women's Liberation
07	Working women with young children
09	Daughter babysitting - (Mary Ann)
11	Expectations of Mary Ann
12	Prostitution - view of this in Kellogg; effect on community
17	Mary Ann's thoughts on being married
18	What daughter likes to do
18.5	Family life
22	Influence of friends - drinking
23	Moving and it's effect on her life