last day in Puyallup

Puyallup. Wash.

Sept 1. 1942 6:00 a.m.

Dearest Oji-san,

This is our last morning in Puyallup. It'll be farewell to the beautiful U. W. and to Mt. Rainier.

Oji-san, you must have felt much as we are now feeling; a sadness and a sort of loneliness in leaving a place so close to home.

I received your letter Friday and enjoyed reading about your hare-chasing sport. It just goes to ~~show~~ how you are, ne. Be good, tho; Oji-san, and take care of yourself. We'll be thinking of you as we ride along to-day. Tomorrow afternoon our address

Will be: Minidoka, W.R.A., Eden, Idaho.

I'll next time, then! Love

FUMIKO.
