

4/10/84

Dear Jim + Holly,

We are writing to you in hopes that you have gotten through the winter months and enjoying the warmer (somewhat) weather that is seeping slowly upon us.

October 1983, Six months ago and yet our trip to the Taylor Ranch is still so clear. Our whole trip to the "Great" Pacific Northwest was a true adventure and we hope to return only to tag and take in areas we weren't able to go to. 2 weeks is such a short time for such a vast place!! Whew!

Guyhoo — we have had these slides ready to send to you for sometime. Hope you're enjoying the "Broccoli Forest" cookbook. We love it!
If you ever tempt the eastern states, please stay with us. We'll show you →

A wilderness area on a barrier island (hehe!) and we'll go blackfishing in the Atlantic (for a change).

Keep in good spirits and good luck with your veggies!

Sincere wishes,

Anna + Alan O'Connell

P.S.
How is the bobcat?
Give him/her a long stare for us!
(apet on the head too!)
