Subject: Visit to Taylor Ranch by Bill Rooney, editor of "American Forests"

Bill Rooney, vice president for publications services and editor of "American Forests" magazine will tentatively come with me to Taylor Ranch Sunday, July 24 a.m. to Wednesday, July 27 a.m. to write a story. "American Forests" is the oldest conservation group in the U.S. and the magazine is good and makes great reprints.

Bill was editor of "Outdoor Life" for a dozen years and took over American Forests in 1976. He will probably do a story on the wilderness fishing too. I will bring food for us. If you have some good slides of research they might get used.

Sincerely,
